WATER ALLOCATION HOLDS UP BILL

Seventh and Bush Site Offered For Post Office Here

TENTATIVE LOCATIONS SUGGESTED

Government Engineer Goes Back to San Francisco With Data About City

MORE OFFERS ASKED

Postmaster Stephenson Is Authorized to Accept Further Bids, He Says

THE SOUTHEAST corner of Seventh and Bush streets was definitely offered the chamber of commerce committee last evening as a site for the postoffice building, it became known today following a meeting of the committee last evening.

The presentation was made by
F. P. Nickey, J. C. Horton and J.
C. Metzgar, who made two tentative offers, in both of which they assured the committee they could deliver the properties offered.

The first offer was a parcel of lots fronting on Bush street and starting at Seventh street and running south 175 feet, the properties involved being those belonging to the First Congregational church and occupied by the Rev. Perry F.
Schrock, pastor of the church, J.
C. Metzgar and Mrs. A. C. Williams.
These properties have a depth of 125 feet and were offered at $40,000. Acquisition of an additional 25 feet on Bush street to complete the depth of 150 feet to be left to the government, with a group of interested persons underwriting the cost of additional space.
The 25 feet on Bush would have to be taken from property belonging to Mrs. William Besser. The needed 25 feet on Seventh street would have to be taken from Spurgeon street lots owned by W.
L. Salisbury, J. C. Metzgar, who, it is understood, will donate the 25 feet, and Mrs. J. L. Dwyer.

The other proposition was to include all of the property on Bush, between Sixth and Seventh, and 25 feet to the rear of the lots fronting on Bush at a consideration of $60,000, with the group agreeing to underwrite the difference between $60,000 and the final costs of the properties.

PRESIDENT BLOCKS BATTLE OVER WEST

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(INS)— President Coolidge plans to block a threatened senatorial battle against the confirmation of Roy P. West, of Illinois, as secretary of the interior, by simply keeping him in the cabinet under his recess appointment, it was rumored today.

A group of western insurgents, it was said, will join with a militant group of Democrats in fighting West's confirmation on account of his long connection with the public utility and power interests of Illinois. Knowing the president's attitude, the senate was said to feel it could be avoided by retaining West under his present appointment. This would enable West to serve until March 4 without confirmation by the senate.

SENATOR WALSH WILL PRESS FOR EARLY ACTION HIS BILL AIMED AT POWER COMPANIES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(UP)—The practice of power companies in attempting to influence school textbooks and teachers was denounced today by Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana who announced he would press for early action in congress on his bill making the practice subject to $1000 fine and 6 months imprisonment.

Walsh told the United Press he did not expect to hold hearings on the bill in the senate judiciary committee where the bill has been referred. He will place before the committee records of the federal trade commission hearings which he believes sufficient to justify adoption of his bill.

"The introduction by selfish private interests into the public schools of textbooks prepared by them or under their direction, particularly when they deal with controversial questions in the field of politics or economics is not to be tolerated," Walsh said.

Walsh said the commission's evidence showed 190,000 textbooks in Ohio in two years were "polluted" by the National Electric Light association on allied interests.
He said the evidence revealed a letter stating that Ginn and Co., largest manufacturer of textbooks had assured the power interests that it would submit to them any work dealing with public utilities, the publication of which was contemplated.

The senator pointed further to evidence that Theodore G. Grayson, in charge of a public utilities course at the University of Pennsylvania had received $250 each for a number of speeches and that he was paid by power interests.

"In one of these addresses, delivered at New Orleans, he linked advocates of government ownership with Bolsheviks and parlor traps and denounced the Boulder dam legislation," Walsh said.

Dean William C. Raymond, University of Iowa and Dean Ruggles, University of Ohio were also mentioned in testimony, he added.

Walsh urged evidence of the commission as cause for his company bill, authorizing the postmaster general to suspend from second class mailing privileges any publication which failed to mark its advertisements any printed matter for which it received pay.

In Ohio, Walsh said, 921 columns of material had been sent out by power interests in one year.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 6.— (UP)—The federal council of the Churches of Christ in America, in its sixth quadrennial meeting here, carried on its theme of peace and good will today, after endorsement yesterday of the Kellogg peace pact. The meeting opened on the council's 20th anniversary.

In addition to endorsing the Kellogg pact, the council urged its immediate ratification by the senate and decided to appeal to all Christians and lovers of good will, peace and world justice, for an early agreement by all nations on a drastic, general reduction of land and sea armaments.

Bishop Francis J. McConnell, of the New York Methodist areas, was elected president for the next four years. Dr. S. Parkes Cad-man, retiring president, was named the nation's radio minister.

WARDEN IS DEFIED
BY CONDEMNED MAN

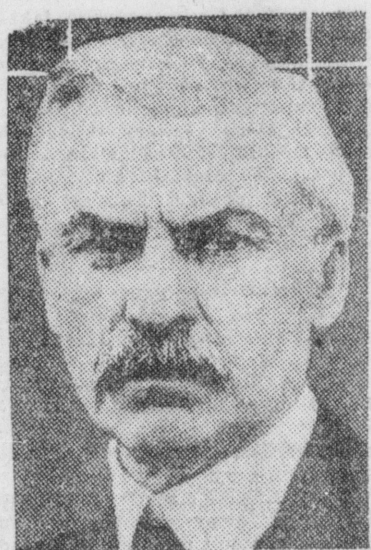

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Dec. 6.
(UP)—Confined in the San Quentin death cage a few steps from the gallows on which he will die tomorrow, John Joseph Malone, Los Angeles murderer, continued to defy officials who sought to secure from him details of Thanksgiving day's unsuccessful escape plot in condemned row.

Warden James Holohan described Malone as "vicious, defiant and surly."
The condemned man refused to speak of the attempted escape in which three other doomed prisoners and two long term convicts were involved.

He refused a spiritual advisor and ignored pleas of his sister that he repent his sins.

SEN. T. J. WALSH

Senator Walsh will seek early action on his bill aimed at power companies. The bill was introduced in the senate Wednesday.

DAVIS FAVORS LIMITING OF IMMIGRATION

Annual Report of Secretary of Labor Asks Passage of Legislation

BY LYLE C. WILSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—
Secretary of Labor James J.
Davis' annual report published today revealed a continued division of opinion in President Coolidge's cabinet on immigration which Secretary Kellogg believes may affect seriously American relations with all Latin American countries.

Davis' report unqualifiedly approved immigration legislation pending in the senate which would extend the restrictive immigration quota system to all countries of the western hemisphere.

Difficulties and dangers to the industrial system of the United States, Davis said, would follow
workers from any source.

Kellogg already has told a senate committee that extension of the

SEEK GIRL WHO GAVE GANGSTER REVOLVER

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(UP)— Detectives today sought a girl who, they believe, can tell them, if she will, how she slipped a revolver to Sidney Weiss, gangster, as he passed into general sessions court here yesterday to be sentenced to life imprisonment.

Weiss was shot to death by John Doyle, captain of court attendants, in a corridor leading to the courtroom. Weiss dropped the revolver with which detectives believe he intended to kill Judge George L. Donnellan, who was on the bench. When the gun was dropped, Leo Karstrand, an attendant, reached for it but Weiss had retrieved it. In the scuffle which followed Karstrand and Al Williams, another attendant, were wounded.

FIVE KILLED WHEN N. Y. BOAT EXPLODES

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(INS)—
At least five men were reported killed today when a tugboat blew up in the East river, off North Brothers Island.

The explosion, presumably in the boiler, blew the craft to pieces, according to an eye witness. Several tons went to the rescue, but found only small pieces of wreckage floating on the water.

FARM RELIEF MUST GO OVER TO EXTRA SESSION CONGRESS

Committee Is Not Able To Agree On Plan

Chairman Haugen Says Hearings Necessary to Adopt Program

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—
(UP)—The house agricultural committee failed to adopt a program for farm legislation at the short session of congress.

Chairman Haugen announced after the executive meeting "very grave doubt as to the possibility of an adequate bill being passed this session was expressed by members of the committee."

He said another committee conference would be held later to adopt a definite program.

Haugen suggested that the necessity for hearings on both farm relief and tariff would prevent legislative action on these measures at the short session, and Rep.
Williams, Repn., Ill., said members seemed to agree farm relief would have to go to a special session of congress. Haugen suggested the new McNary senate farm relief bill does not suffice
"to make the tariff effective on farm products."

WASHINGTON GETS RUM SALE CHARGES

ERIE, Pa., Dec. 6.—(UP)—Federal authorities in Washington will dispose of the charges made against members of coast guard cutter crew No. 219, it was declared today by Capt. Martin V.
Rasmussen, district commandant, Buffalo, conducting the investigation here.

The crew is charged with entering into a conspiracy for the illegal sale of liquors seized from a rum boat a week ago on the Detroit river.

Captain Rasmussen said today the last of the witnesses would be heard by noon and that the results would then be transcribed and sent to Washington authorities. He said he was not at liberty to divulge any of the proceedings and that a decision should be forthcoming from Washington in about a week.

POISON FUMES KILL TEXAS DRY RAIDER

HOUSTON, Tex., Dec. 6.—(UP)— Investigation was under way today into the death of Pat Sharp, 46, star boy raider, killed by poison fumes late Wednesday during a raid at a house and stable four miles from Houston.

Sharp died in a pit under the floor of the stable, despite efforts of three men to rescue him. His chief, Victor J. Butthod, deputy administrator of southern Texas dry forces, narrowly escaped Sharp's fate.

"We intend to find out just what caused Sharp's death and to discover how much those people on the ranch knew about that black pit," Butthod said from his sick bed.

"Every angle in this tragedy will be investigated."

BOY, 12, GETS $9000 FROM SALE OF STEER

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—(UP)—Clarence Goecke, 12-year-old State Center, Ill., boy, whose purebred Hereford yearling, Dick, won grand prize at the International Livestock exposition, will receive almost $9000 from the sale of the steer, B. S. Heide, general manager of the exposition, announced today.

Dick was sold at public auction to the J. C. Penny company, New York, for $7 a pound, a new world's record for fat steers. The previous record of $3.80 a pound was established at the 1926 exposition. Dick weighs 1130 pounds.

OPPOSITION TO KELLOGG PACT IS EVIDENCED

Fight Develops In Senate With Sen. James Reed of Missouri Leading

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—
An unorganized but nevertheless threatening opposition to the Kellogg anti-war treaty suddenly has found root in the senate.

How formidable it will grow remains to be developed. At present it amounts to a determined stand against the treaty by Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, with a doubt in the minds of half a dozen other senators which will have to be dissipated if the treaty is to get the overwhelming majority of ratifications its adherents expected.

Secretary of State Kellogg has been directed by the foreign relations committee to appear before it tomorrow in an effort to straighten the matter.

Reed has taken the position that the treaty ultimately would put the United States into the world court "by the back door." Some others of the old band of "irrecon-ciliables" who fought the League of Nations in 1918 share this same view. Others want to know if the reservations will sufficiently protect the Monroe Doctrine. Senators Johnson of California and Moses of New Hampshire are understood to be particularly anxious to learn whether some further reservations are necessary.

Even some of the Democratic supporters of Wilsonian foreign policies are doubtful about the adviseability of the treaty.

"It seems to me to be a mere blatant wind," Senator Bruce Dem. Mo., told the United Press.
"There is now a real agency for world peace to which we could subscribe."

Bruce said he had talked to other Democratic senators who shared his view. However, the Democratic leader in matters of foreign relations, Senator Swanson of Virginia, has indicated he would not oppose the treaty.

Chairman Borah of the foreign relations committee now considering the treaty, was one of the "irreconcilables" of the Versailles treaty fight, but he does not share Reed's view that the anti-war pact would push this country into the world court, he said today. He still is confident the treaty will be ratified.

CHAPPELOW AVOCADO FOUNDER SUCCEUMBS

DUARTE, Calif., Dec. 6.—(UP)— William Chappelow, 80, credited with having grown the first avocado tree in California and founder of the Chappelow avocado, died in his home here last night.

As a pioneer to this section he settled here in 1875 and 39 years ago planted the first avocado seed in an experiment to determine if the climate was suitable for avocados.
The tree from that seed still stands.

Chappelow later developed an avocado which bears his name.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow.

College Cancels Social Functions Due To Drinking

COLORADO SPRINGS, Dec. 6.
—All formal social events at Colorado college for the rest of the school year, except the junior prom, have been cancelled because of excessive liquor drinking during the homecoming celebration at the college last month, it was announced today.

The Tiger, college publication in announcing the ruling, said:
"The question of drinking at college functions was brought before the eyes of the school rather forcibly at the recent homecoming celebration. The atmosphere was redolent with fumes of corn whiskey and synthetic gin."

REPORTS FROM PALACE SHOW KING BETTER

Queen and Princess Leave For Ride This Afternoon Smiling

By KEITH JONES
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, Dec. 6.—The king, his condition alternately encouraging or alarming as his illness progresses, gave the royal family satisfaction and hope today as his system fought off the infection in his lung.

His physicians, in their morning bulletin, said the infective process remained severe but was becoming more localized. After a fair night, his temperature was lower and his general condition was slowly improving.

During several recent crises, unspoken fear was aroused that the king might die before the prince of Wales could complete his hurried trip home from Africa. Today, the palace household awaited with confidence the arrival of the prince at his father's bedside by the middle of next week.

The queen and Princess Mary went for a drive this afternoon and the crowd noted that the queen was cheerful and smiling.
It was announced that Princess Mary hopes to fill engagements which she has made at Northampton on Saturday.

Lord Dawson of Penn, the king's physician, paid two routine visits to the palace during the day, con-fering with his colleague, Sir Stanley Hewett, for an hour and a half in the morning and for a shorter period this afternoon.

A distinctly hopeful feeling was evident at the palace. The ability of the king's heart to withstand the strain of his illness has been considered the most disturbance feature. Absence of any mention of the heart in the official bulletin was regarded as encouraging.

FOUR PERSONS LOSE LIVES IN 2 EXPLOSIONS

Disinfecting Plant In New York and Tug Boat In River Wrecked

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(INS)—
Four persons are known to be dead, six are injured, fifteen unaccounted for and five were rescued in two explosions here today.

The most disastrous blast was in a disinfecting plant on East 108th street. Ambulances, police reserves and fire equipment have been rushed to the scene.

A tugboat exploded in the East River an hour before, after a collision with a freighter. It sank quickly, but the five members of crew escaped by jumping into the water.

The cause of the disinfecting plant explosion was not learned. It was feared that many more dead are buried in the wreckage of the plant, located on the East side.

Windows were blown out in buildings for blocks around. Two fire alarms were turned in immediately and ambulances were called from six hospitals.

The tugboat collision occurred 500 feet off the west end of Rikers Island. The tug J. J. Haggerty, of the Bronx Towing company, was side-swiped by the 4,000 ton freighter Thomas Tracy, of the Tracy Transportation company.

The tug's captain, Neils Johnson, attempted to beach his craft on Rikers Island. Then came the explosion, presumably the result of water reaching the boiler room fires.
The tug was enveloped in steam and sank quickly. The members of her crew jumped overboard and swam until they were picked up in row-boats.

NORTHCOTT'S MAP AIDS GRAVE SEARCH

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—(INS)— Guided by a crude map on which Gordon Stewart, Northcott's exposed lover, had marked the decades of four alleged "murder farm" victims, deputies today prepared to launch a new search in the Mojave desert.

The map, with four circles drawn in pencil and showing a network of desert trails, was found in the former Los Angeles home of Northcott after the 21-year-old Canadian youth directed officers to look for the purported graveyard chart.

"Look there thoroughly and you'll find a sketch of the places I buried several boys," the confessed slayer of five small boys, told deputy sheriffs. "It's on the flyleaf of a Bible, I think. But don't stop at Bibles. Look everywhere."

THREE ESCAPE FROM FEDERAL OFFICE

SAN PEDRO, Dec. 6.—(INS)—
After beating a guard into unconsciousness with an iron bar, three men who had been detained for investigation today escaped from the United States immigration headquarters here.

The men, Pat Crownshield,
Charles Guyette and H. M. Mo-Farland, were suspected of having entered the country illegally.
They were still at large this morning.

ENGINEER, FIREMEN HURT IN COLLISION

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—(INS)—The train were seriously injured and 50 passengers were severely shaken here today when the train collided with a mail and express train.

Both trains were derailed and

OBJECTIONS OF ARIZONA MINOR ONES

Negotiations to Surmount Difficulties Are Believed Possible By Johnson

By EDWARD B. LOCKETT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—
(UP)—Unequivocal allocation of water for irrigation is Arizona's principal objection to the Swing-Johnson Boulder dam bill, Senator Hayden, Democrat, Arizona, told the senate today. This statement was regarded as an implication that Arizona's opposition to the measure might be withdrawn if negotiations now under way for a new water agreement are successful.

First Peaceful Move From Opposition Encourages Senator from California

There are pending 44 amendments to the Colorado river power and irrigation measure, and more than 50 additional have been drafted for future introduction. Johnson will direct discussion to these as soon as possible. They must be disposed of before final action can come on the colossal engineering project.

"I am satisfied with the first day's debate," he said today, reviewing the discussion which opened debate on the bill.

Johnson was faced with the first peaceful move of the opposition since he introduced the Swing-Johnson measure in the senate last session. Opposing forces announced that efforts against the measure would be considerably weakened, if not entirely eliminated, by California's agreeing to a cut of 400,000 acre-feet in the 4,000,000 acre-feet water allotment, accorded it under the Swing-Johnson bill. This demand, however, Johnson indicated, would not be acceded to by California. He will fight for enactment as it stands, except for minor legislative revision in accordance with suggestions of the special engineers' report made during the summer.

It will be late today before discussion swings from preliminary parliamentary tactics into the legislation itself. The opposition, led by

BERGER SPONSORS ANTI-KLAN MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—(UP)—
A bill making it a federal offense punishable by a fine of $500 and 10 years imprisonment or both, for "any two or more persons to go in disguise on public highways" was ready for introduction today by Representative Victor L. Berger, Socialist, Wisconsin.

Commenting on the measure,
Berger said:
"My bill proposes to re-enact in several important particulars the acts passed in 1870 and 1871 against the Ku Klux Klan of that time."

"The recent campaign has shown how deeply rooted race and religious prejudice has become, and the danger of permitting organizations which fan the flames of intolerance to continue to function. Issues of tremendous importance were completely disregarded while the religious questions became dominant,"
Berger said.

Both trains were derailed and traffic was jammed.

$100,000 Balm Demanded In Breach Of Promise Suit

LULU SCOTT, OF ANAHEIM, SUES PLACENTIA MAN

Declaring that she has been intensely humiliated and embarrassed and that her health has been seriously impaired by the alleged refusal of Delmar Woodward to keep his asserted promise to marry her, Lulu Scott today launched a breach of promise suit against him in which she asked $100,000 damages.

Both are said to have been married before, Lulu Scott is a resident of Anaheim and Woodward is said to own a ranch estate near Placentia, on which he lives.

The complaint pointed out that the plaintiff always has been ready and able to marry Woodward, but that he refused to fulfill the alleged marriage agreement on the day set for the wedding.

According to the woman's complaint, Woodward agreed to marry her on July 1, 1927, in Orange county. She said that they set November 22 in the same year as the date for the wedding. But Woodward, she declared, was unwilling to participate in the ceremony on that day.

After the alleged engagement he circulated widely among her friends and his, as well as among their many acquaintances throughout Orange county "the fact of the engagement and of the intention of the parties to wed," the complaint said. Suit was filed through E. A. Miller, Los Angeles attorney.

THIS FAST YOUTH

TOLEDO, Dec. 6.—In this day and age, when infants smoke cigars and boys with fuzz on their upper lip drink unadulterated spirits of juniper berries, one doesn't stop at things out of the ordinary. However, police of Toledo recently took time out to arrest a speeding motorist doing 35 miles an hour. When caught, the speed demon turned out to be a 12-year-old boy.

SUCH GENIAL HOTEL RIVALS: BILL GREET'S BOB'S GUESTS; WEARS HIS AMPLE VEST, TOO

To all men of generous girth in Santa Ana—greetings from William J. Murphy, manager of the Santa Ana hotel. Have you my vest?

To R. L. Bisby, manager of St. Ann's Inn, a man not only of generous girth like Bill Murphy, but also, like him, a man with a nice kind heart—greetings (also from Murphy.)

Hundreds of Orange county citizens who attended the military ball at St. Ann's Inn last night noted that Murphy, perfectly attired in his Tuxedo, was receiving guests in his rival's hostelry. But they didn't know the story of the vest.

At 8 p. m. Murphy was beginning to get a little wild. He had sent his suit to the cleaner's and it had been returned—minus the vest. He telephoned the cleaner and all he received was the sugar coated and obvious information that no one answered.

Being a hotel man, Murphy knew almost everyone in town and also was able to classify his friends as to girth. He called up Sheriff Sam Jernigan. No vest. Sam had received his own from the cleaner and Murphy decided to ask another. And so every man of generous girth in the city received a phone call from Murphy last night until finally the desperate hotel man wiped his brow and heaved a terrible sigh as he considered the last man on his mental list, Bob Bisby.

Murphy hung the "not to be disturbed" sign on his office door and softly closed it. Gingerly he took up the phone and gave his number. His mouth got dry. He fidgeted and twisted in his chair.

It is said that Bisby hardly recognized the queer voice that came to him over the wire. But Murphy managed to tell his troubles to his rival, mopping his worried brow as he did so. And then the last hope faded. Bisby didn't have the vest.

Bill Murphy, smiling as usual, was at the door of Bisby's hotel. No one guessed the secret that lay hidden in his heart. But he was wearing Bob Bisby's vest.

PROPOSAL FOR PURCHASE OF FAIR GROUNDS BY COUNTY IS TAKEN UP BY FARM BUREAU

The board of directors of the Orange County Farm Bureau met at 10 a. m., today, for an all-day session at which definite action was scheduled on suggested endorsement of the proposal that Orange county buy the fair grounds between Santa Ana and Anaheim on the state highway.

Every farm center in the county to which the project has been referred by the directors has approved of the proposed purchase, according to Norman M. Blaney, secretary of the farm bureau. The 25-acre property has been offered to the county by the fair association at the price originally paid for it several years ago.

The board of directors has reserved action on the proposed endorsement of the idea until after referring the matter to the farm centers to get a reflection of the opinion of the members.

Reports from the membership, roads, public utilities, ways and means, publicity and legislative committees were to be heard today by the directors.

Awarding of the contract for printing the Farm Bureau News, monthly publication, for the ensuing year was to be made today.

thought in the country must be concentrated on the problem of adjusting labor to the conditions arising from new installations of machinery.

When Reed read a resolution of the Illinois American Legion opposing repeal of the national origins provision Democrats charged the Republican president-elect took contrary view in his acceptance speech.

"At present, we have the votes on the subject and the president-elect has not," Reed finally said. "I sincerely hope the provision will not be repealed and that it will go into effect next July 1."

Senator Pat Harrison, Dem., Miss., pointed out Hoover might "recommend repeal of the act in his inaugural address and asked Reed if he would still stand for the act." Reed answered he would.

During debate, Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, charged "they are smuggling in thousands and thousands of immigrants in New York."

"It is alarming," Heflin said. "They are smuggling in thousands from Canada and Mexico." He did not say who he meant by "they."

ENGLISH LONGEVITY
LONDON, Dec. 6.—A recent report of deaths in Hampstead, covering a period of three months showed that 39 of 240 persons listed were over 80 years of age.

Unmoved by these objections, Davis described the lack of universal immigration restriction as one of the fundamental weaknesses of the present law. Opponents and supporters of the bill to extend restrictions agree that Mexico is the source against which the barriers would be raised. Mexican immigration has increased rapidly since European immigration was curtailed and Davis contended that Mexican laborers were filtering into the industrial area east of the Mississippi if restrictions were applied to Mexico. It was understood they also would have to be extended to all other western hemisphere countries.

Davis' report and the text of Kellogg's remarks before the senate committee showed the two secretaries in disagreement on almost every point in connection with the restriction proposal and it was understood diplomats take a serious view of what might result from passage of the bill.

The report, covering the fiscal year ended June 30, 1928, showed a slight decrease in the cost of living, an increase in the number of aliens naturalized, a considerable reduction in infant mortality and in increase over 1927 in the amount spent for building in United States.

Increased use of labor-saving machinery, Davis said, had "had a marked effect in causing unemployment" and the best economic

MORE OFFERS FOR FEDERAL BUILDING HERE

The committee took no formal action on the proposition, but when W. A. Newman, representative of the government who has been here for two or three days inspecting offers, departed late yesterday he had the proposition of the three Santa Ana men for consideration.

During his stay in Santa Ana Newman made extensive investigation of conditions here and gathered statistics pertaining to school growth, increase in meters by the gas and electric companies, development in the number of telephones and other information that will be of service in impressing the treasury department with the steady and substantial growth of this community. He also carried with him the assessed valuation of properties offered as sites for the federal building.

Before his departure he made it clear that he will present all data possible on the various locations for governing treasury officials in selection of a site. It was pointed out here today that while the officials are interested in getting a site that will be convenient both to the city and the postoffice department, that quoted prices would have an important bearing in directing choice of a parcel of land. It was said that a difference of even $10,000 in properties in relative positions to the center of the city might result in selection of a site offered at $10,000 less than a parcel in similar proximity to the center of the community.

Postmaster T. E. Stephenson announced today that it is not too late for the submission of offers, and in making the announcement he emphasized the point that he is not personally concerned in the selection of a site, further than an interest in seeing the postoffice building in a location convenient for patrons and for the department.

In discussing the fund for a federal building here, the postmaster pointed out that $250,000, or any other sum, has not been definitely appropriated to Santa Ana. He recounted that when a survey was made of needed federal buildings by a committee two years ago, recommendation was made for a building program covering a period of five years. Santa Ana was included in the program and recommendation was made that a sum approximating $250,000 be expended on a building here. An appropriation was made for the building program. It might be possible for Santa Ana to get more than $250,000 and it might be possible for the city to get less, the postmaster intimated.

W. B. Martin, late today submitted to Stephenson an offer of a group of properties on Bush, Spurgeon and Second streets as a site. Martin holds an option on the properties and offers them at $60,000. The holdings have a frontage of 150 feet on Bush and Spurgeon and a length of 250 feet along Second street. Warehouse buildings and private residences are located on some of the lots.

It is understood that suggestion has been made the treasury department attempt to acquire the property by condemnation proceedings, if the price is considered excessive.

It was understood that a group of men interested had agreed to underwrite the difference should a court decree place the value at a sum in excess of $60,000.

AIR LINE TO JOIN CALIFORNIA CITIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—(UP)—Plans for an airline connecting many key cities of central and northern California were announced here today by George W. Houghson, head of Lake Airways, Inc.

Ten planes, six Sikorsky amphibian monoplanes and four Stinsons as taxis, eventually will be in the service, according to Houghson.

Two of the Sikorskys are scheduled for delivery early in 1929 at which time a regular schedule will be started between San Francisco and Sacramento, Stockton, Lakeport, Lake Tahoe, Oroville, Chico, Red Bluff, Redding and Eureka.

FIVE INJURED, THREE BADLY, IN AUTO CRASH

Five persons were injured, three seriously, in a truck-automobile collision at the El Toro intersection of the state highway this morning.

Four of the persons were taken to the San Clemente hospital. The fifth was a pedestrian, walking near the intersection when the truck and automobile crashed.

Mrs. Mary Barnes and her daughter, Miss Zoe Barnes, of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Little, of Los Angeles, were hurt. The three women were reported in a serious condition this afternoon.

The truck was being driven by W. R. Yost, of 415 East First street, Santa Ana, when it collided with a car operated by William Calva, of 810 South Union street, Los Angeles, according to a report of the accident made here this afternoon by Ole Buer, of the state police.

Dave Lintros, resident of the Salvation Army home in San Diego, was the pedestrian injured in the accident. He suffered cuts and bruises.

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The train he had boarded was taking him far past his station, and fearing that he would lose his job if he were not on time, William Woodcraft, 36, jumped from a train going 60 miles an hour and was killed. At the inquest his landlady said Woodcraft believed he had a charmed life.

BOULDER DAM BATTLE AGAIN ON IN SENATE

Democratic Senators Ashurst and Hayden of Arizona, indicated a desire to thresh out the water and power allocations first. They announced Johnson would be charged with betrayal of the cause of governmental ownership should he support an amendment, according to the government the option of operating a Boulder Dam power plant. Johnson asserted the amendment was introduced at "the insistence of the secretary of the interior, to protect the government from possible monopoly."

"I don't consider that the administration would not approve the government's protecting itself by the option of operating the plant," he said. "As I understand it, the administration doesn't want the government to enter the retail power business."

To this Hayden retorted: "I want to warn the Californian that if he supports the optional amendment he will be charged with deliberate betrayal of the cause of government ownership, which he has so long championed."

LOCATION SEEN AS IDEAL FOR POSTAL OFFICE

Should the city of Santa Ana give Birch park to the federal government as a site for the new postoffice building?

The question was raised and discussed in an informal discussion at the Toastmasters' club meeting last night at the Y. M. C. A.

The problem of where and how the new postoffice is to be located was considered by a number of speakers and suggestions were made of various sites on several convenient streets. W. L. Duggan suggested that a location fronting on Birch park would be especially desirable, offering the opportunity for beauty as well as convenience. This led to the further suggestion that Birch park itself be used for a site.

It was said that Birch park is obviously too small to serve Santa Ana in any adequate manner for park purposes and that it is only a matter of time until the city will have to secure a new location and build a real park. On the other hand, it would furnish a convenient, adequate and altogether useful site for the federal building. It might be possible to take the $50,000 which is said to be available for the postoffice lot and add to it from the public funds an amount sufficient to purchase a new park site of size and location to meet the needs of Santa Ana for a long time to come, in the opinion of members of the club.

Besides discussing this public enterprise, the Toastmasters enjoyed a well presented program of speeches under the guidance of William Iverson, who served as toastmaster. Orson Hunter talked on "Christmas Shopping in Santa Ana." Victor Hawk discussed "The Power of the Human Eye." The subject of Christmas cards was presented by W. L. Duggan, and Walter Ferris handled his assignment of "Fears" in an able manner.

School Housing Problems To Be Taken Up Tuesday

The Santa Ana board of education will meet at 7 p. m. next Tuesday, it was announced today, and representatives from the Newport harbor district, including delegates from each elementary school district in the Santa Ana high school district, have been urged to attend the session.

School housing problems facing the district will be discussed at the session. Invitations have been sent to representative people in the Newport harbor region asking them to attend the meeting.

It is expected that the citizens' advisory committee, appointed by the board of education to assist it in working on the housing situation will be present.

Must Have Cash For Fees At U. C.

BERKELEY, Calif., Dec. 6. — (UP)—Cash only will be the basis for incidental fees at the University of California next semester, according to an announcement by Controller Robert G. Sproul.

Last semester $2600 in worthless checks was received by the university, he said. Part was made good by the students, but in many cases the institution had to stand the loss. In some cases the students gave checks for larger amounts than they owed and received change.

The cash only for incidental fees policy was given to Cashier J. H. Corley, by the controller.

HOOVER BACK ABOARD SHIP THIS MORNING

By THOMAS L. STOKES
ABOARD THE U. S. S. MARYLAND, Dec. 6.—President-elect Herbert Hoover bade farewell to Peru—the second on the South African countries to be visited on his Latin-American tour—at 2 a. m., today.

Several thousand persons gathered at the docks and enthusiastically cheered the Hoover party as it left in launches for the Maryland, anchored in the harbor.

All of the ships in the Callao harbor were lighted brilliantly and a fireworks display was held on the shore when the party arrived from Lima, the capital, eight miles distant.

The next stop of the Maryland will be made at Antofagasta, Chile, where a mission representing the Bolivian government will take lunch aboard the vessel and confer with Mr. Hoover.

Numerous cases, containing gifts which Mr. Hoover and members of the party received during the visit to Peru, were loaded on the Maryland just before sailing.

The most valued gift was an Inca robe, recently discovered when an ancient tomb of the Indian capital was excavated.

Another gift from the ancient Inca ruins was a solid gold mask.

The Peruvian cruiser Almirante Grau, which has escorted the Maryland since she entered Peruvian waters, weighed anchor with the Maryland and will accompany the American vessel to the southern boundary of the Peruvian waters.

The president-elect virtually has decided to eliminate Mexico in the itinerary of his present tour and probably will go direct to Florida from Havana, Cuba. He may visit Mexico in February, however.

Mr. Hoover was pleased with the reception at Lima. It surpassed any welcome so far given the party. He was interested particularly in the engineering progress which Peru has made.

RAND IS FOUND GUILTY OF BIGAMY; SANITY TRIAL TO BE HELD ON DECEMBER 18

Following a jury verdict stating that Clarence P. Rand, of El Paso, Texas, is guilty of bigamy, the defendant, who is alleged to have had five wives, is awaiting today a second trial in the case, which will be launched December 18, to determine his sanity.

The jury announced its verdict late yesterday in Superior Judge E. J. Marks' court after deliberating 25 minutes. Deputy District Attorney S. B. Kaufman conducted the prosecution of the case. Rand testified in his own defense yesterday and Hazel Mayes Rand, of Los Angeles, who is his fifth wife, also took the witness stand.

It had been expected that the sanity hearing would follow at once, but the date of the trial was continued to December 18, at 9:30 a. m., at the request of Rand's counsel, which included Franklin

G. West, Santa Ana; Cliff Allen, and Raymond Thompson, Fullerton, and Weldon J. Bailey, Los Angeles. F. H. Lyon, associate of Allen, was appointed by the court to represent Rand, but illness prevented him from acting. Illness of a witness was the reason for the request for continuance.

Rand entered two pleas when he was arraigned. One was not guilty and the other was not guilty by reason of insanity. The procedure gives him a trial on each plea in case he is found guilty on the first.

His father, Will Rand, formerly an El Paso paving contractor and now a resident of Long Beach, stated after the trial that he was absolutely unable to account for his son's action except through the fact that when he was 10 years of age he was afflicted with meningitis.

BOLSA

BOLSA, Dec. 6.—Sara Lee, the 15 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Rainey, died Monday at the family home in Bolsa, following a short illness. The little girl was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Rainey, who are new people in the community, having moved here about three months ago.

John McMillan went to work this week in the Santa Fe Springs oil field.

The Bolsa school reopened Monday following a four-day holiday and practically all of the pupils were present at classes that morning, there being four absent from Miss Oldfield's primary department, five from another room and seven from the other, which was considered a remarkable attendance for the inclement weather.

Miss Beale Gardner, who attends business college in Santa Ana, is out of school on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Howard and family motored here from Escondido Sunday, bringing to his home at Silver Acres their nephew, John Howard, who had been their guest. The visitors were dinner guests that day of Mr. and Mrs. John Farnsworth.

Upon returning to Escondido Mr. and Mrs. Howard found that Mrs. Howard's nephew, Carol Dodge, 16 years of age, and the only child of Mrs. Howard's sister, had been killed that day when a new motorcycle, which he was riding, crashed with a horse and buggy at Escondido.

Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth went to Escondido Tuesday to attend the funeral of the young man.

Mrs. Gus Ward attended the U.S.C. Notre Dame football game in Los Angeles Saturday and upon her return was accompanied by her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, who remained as week end guests in the Ward home. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ward had their family together for a postponed Thanksgiving dinner, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Butler, of Santa Ana, joining the family party.

Gus Ward, who was recovering from influenza, suffered a relapse. Seven tables were played at a card party held Saturday evening in the Bolsa clubhouse. Those taking prizes were Mrs. Adams, of Huntington Beach, first for women; Mrs. Luther, of Garden Grove, second; Jake Rathke, first for men, and P. O. Wood, second for men. Refreshments of apple pie and coffee were served.

A benefit dance for the Westminster ball team will be held next Saturday evening in the Bolsa clubhouse. This is the third of a series of dances which are being given to assist in financing the completion of the baseball park.

Press Stroud of the Bolsa store is convalescing from an attack of influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farnsworth attended on Monday evening the farm bureau dinner given in connection with the drive being put on for new members.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Stennett are entertaining as their guests Mr. Stennett's sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Stennett, and her father, who are late arrivals from Iowa. At present Mrs. Stennett, her mother and Mrs. H. Stennett are all confined with influenza and Mrs. Bully is caring for them.

SPRINGDALE

SPRINGDALE, Dec. 6.—A number of relatives of Mrs. Arthur Giesler from Springdale were entertained in the Giesler home at Greenville Thanksgiving day by Mr. and Mrs. Giesler, a fried chicken dinner being served the large company present.

Those attending from Springdale were Mr. and Mrs. George Crane, S. J. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graham and two sons, Mrs. Charles Wentzel and daughter, Juanita Wentzel; Lee Wentzel and daughter, Velma, and son, Dwight; and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reed and their young granddaughter, Betty Reed of Glendale, who arrived Wednesday to remain as guests over the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crane.

Four of the usual family group were absent from the dinner, Mrs. Lee Wentzel and Roy Wentzel being absent on account of the illness of Roy, who is suffering from influenza, and Charles Wentzel, of this place, and an uncle, John Cline, of Glendale, they having left last Tuesday to motor through to their former home in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberson and Ed Moore were guests at Thanksgiving dinner in Santa Ana where they were entertained by their cousin, Miss Irma DeBarr, who also had as her guests, her brother, Lynn DeBarr, and Mr. and Mrs. Whitney, friends of Santa Ana. LOS ANGELES MINISTER SAYS "FLAXOLYN SAVED MY STOMACH AND MY HEALTH"

—After 15 Years of Suffering. All Local Stomach Sufferers Should Read This Amazing Statement

No case in recent years has received such startling notice as that of Dr. Middlekauff, who writes as follows from Los Angeles to Dr. Harris H. Luntz, discoverer of Herbal Flaxolyn Compound:

"Some years ago when I was in personal need of Gastro-intestinal help I used your Flaxolyn with most excellent results. I am enclosing $10 for a quantity of Flaxolyn to help my patients as I am now a Naturopathic Physician. I am a retired Baptist minister. I broke down in health completely nearly 15 years ago, but on nature-cure lines (and with the help of Flaxolyn) I am slowly getting back my health. I am sure of helping many people through Flaxolyn because it gives proper attention to STOMACH NERVES—without ordinary laxatives do not."

Dr. Middlekauff's experience with Herbal Flaxolyn has been more than duplicated all along the Pacific Coast by doctors, sanitarians and patients. Dr. Baker of the Foster Health Home, Clarkston, Wash., reports as follows:

"Purifies Intestinal Tract. I have been using Flaxolyn quite extensively in my practice, especially in cases of appendicitis for the purpose of cleansing and purifying the intestinal tract, and have found it very satisfactory indeed. In fact, I am unable to get along without it."

William Blake, president of the Natural Foods and Products Co., of Los Angeles, states that never in all his experience in health work has he seen anything to give better results to weak, tired-out, rundown people suffering from stomach troubles, chronic constipation of the bowels, high blood pressure, sleeplessness, liver irregularities, kidney and bladder irritation.

NATURAL TONIC-LAXATIVE
Dr. G. S. White, the famous health author of Los Angeles; Dr. Axel Emil Gibson, noted lecturer and writer; Dr. Benedict Lust, president of the American Naturopathic Association; Dr. Victor Hugo Lindlar of the Lindlar Sanatorium in Chicago; Dr. Woodruff of Fort Angeles, Wash., and dozens of other druggists physicians have given unstinted praise to Flaxolyn because it is a natural food remedy.

Flaxolyn is obtainable through all reliable health-food stores and ethical druggists. A package containing many treatments, $1. Sent postpaid on receipt of price.

NEW OUTLOOK ON LIFE
Don't wait. If you suffer from stomach distress constantly, if toxic poisons are causing poor blood, weakened condition, loss of sleep and vitality, act at once. Flaxolyn is different from anything you have used before, because it is a food laxative tonic, not a drug. Note the renewed energy—the new spring to your step and keenness of eye after you have taken a few Flaxolyn treatments.

ENDEAVOR BODY PLANS SESSION IN PLACENTIA

PLACENTIA, Dec. 6.—The Orange County Christian Endeavor society will hold a rally at Calvary church, Placentia, at 3 o'clock

Friday afternoon. Representatives from all the societies of the county will be present and the Rev. Charles Fuller will give a message on "The Will of God." The Sunday school at Olinda, which is sponsored by Calvary church, has an enrollment of 82. The average attendance is large in spite of prevailing illness. A Bible class has been organized at Olinda, meeting on Friday evening at the Community church, under the leadership of M. L. Lee, of Garden Grove. Don Milligan, director of the boys' club, who has been ill for several weeks, returned from Los Angeles Tuesday and the regular club schedule will begin at once.

WANTED KNIFE IN BASTILE TO PROTECT SELF

An attempt to smuggle a knife into the county jail was frustrated early this morning when Deputy Jailer Hubbard searched the pockets of George Carson, 78, a resident of the county poor farm, who had been arrested. Hubbard found the knife wrapped up in a handkerchief. Carson is being held pending the filing of a complaint which will charge him with stealing a blanket in the county hospital, according to Dr. Harry Zaiser, superintendent of the institution. When Carson was brought in, he was told to deposit everything in his pockets on the counter in the jailer's office. Hubbard noticed the handkerchief being switched from one pocket to the other. "Is that all you have," the prisoner was asked. "Yes, that's all," he answered. Hubbard noticed the handkerchief was not among the articles on the counter, so searched Carson. The handkerchief contained the knife. "I wanted to keep that for protection," the prisoner said.

Court Notes

Elsie Bullock today had filed suit for divorce against William L. Bullock, charging him with failure to provide. They were married in 1925 and separated in 1927, the complaint stated. Asserting that a car driven by J. M. Jamieson had collided with his motorcycle at Fourth and Main streets, Santa Ana, on August 4, Frank L. Burns Jr., 16, today brought suit for $10,000 damages against Jamieson. Suit was filed through Frank L. Burns Sr. The crash resulted in a compound fracture of the boy's left leg, the complaint said.

David A. Corbett cut to pieces a new pair of silk hose which his wife had just brought home, arguing that the hose were a gift from another man, Mrs. Grace L. Corbett asserted in a suit for divorce filed today. She said he had accused her of being intimate with other men. They were married in March, 1927, and separated Nov. 28, 1928, the complaint said. Failure to provide was charged to Walter Feather in a divorce complaint filed today by Martha Feather. The complaint said that they were married in 1904 and separated in 1912.

The will of the late Albert L. Glavocchini, who died November 18, was filed for probate today. Property worth in excess of $10,000 was listed in the estate. Heirs named were Earl L. Glavocchini, widow, and Albert, Robert and Thomas Glavocchini, sons.

Police News

D. L. Winans and Fritz Knute, Santa Ana, were fined $2 each in police court yesterday on charges of parking their automobiles on downtown streets between 2 and 5 a.m.

George Sirko, 22, of Los Angeles arrested in Tustin last night by John Stanton, chief of police, and is being held in the county jail as a vagrant.

Asserted Peace Disturber Held

Charged with being drunk and disturbing the peace in San Juan Capistrano, last night, Ralph King, 30, of 1407 Brockton avenue, Sawtelle, was arrested by State Traffic Officer Joe Clever and brought to the county jail here. He is scheduled to be taken to Justice John Landell's court this afternoon for a hearing.

A Drama of Love

Which should she choose?

—this lovely, laughing girl only revealed in the thrill of it! Life was one gay song, until—but you must read this tremendous love drama from real life, complete in January TRUE STORY.

GAY, lovely little coquette! . . . Singing of her playthings at love, David and K. . . Singing her song of love, with kisses for the high notes—little dreaming that her perfect, pagan beauty could make a saint—or a murderer—of any man.

To David, loving her more than life, she was the one woman. To K she was—one woman. An alluring prize.

But David's love, steady as the sun, she found a little dull. It only cost a kiss to laugh at David.

But K—older, more forceful, fascinating—little by little this man with his intriguing nonchalance laid the grip and thrill of passion on her heart.

And then the sudden crisis in this pent-up drama! A night she had promised to David—she gave to K! Carrying a traveling bag—David learned that. And he knew K's game, knew his favorite hang-out. A wild chase across the city—a terrible scene in a strange inn—and out of that mortal struggle between love and passion came—but we mustn't spoil this gripping story for you!

Read it all—the true story of this greatest crisis in three human lives—complete in January TRUE STORY. So true and vivid it will hold you breathless to the end, told in the words of the girl who lived through every scene of it.

RED PIMPLES LOOKED BAD

Over Face and Neck. Lost Sleep. Cuticura Healed.

"Small, red pimples broke out all over my face and neck. Later they became larger and looked badly. They feasted and scaled over, and itched and burned causing me to scratch. Scratching caused eruptions and I lost a great deal of rest and sleep at night. The trouble lasted two or three months.

"I had about given up hope of getting relief when I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. After using it I purchased more and in three weeks I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Lena Parry, 597 Douglas St., Ogden, Utah, April 13, 1928.

EDISON BUDGET OF $29,260,214 GETS APPROVAL

R. H. Ballard, president of the Southern California Edison company, today announced that the board of directors of the company had approved a budget of $29,260,214 for the year 1929. These expenditures next year will be largely for re-enforcement and extension of the distributing system and will be a part of the $120,000,000 expansion program outlined by the company for the next five years.

"We are on the eve of a tremendous expansion in the commercial application of electricity," said Ballard, "our company has reached the point where major activities for the next few years will be the extension of our distribution system for the service of our customers."

The 1929 appropriations will be spent in the ten counties of Southern and Central California served by the Southern California Edison company system. A new general office building in Los Angeles will be constructed at a cost of $2,500,000.

Funds of the 1929 budget will be allotted to the 32 districts through which the company operates and the Big Creek-San Joaquin and Long Beach generating plants for expansion of service facilities and continuation of generating development.

With the completion during the last year of the fifth of a series of hydro-electric power plants as a part of the Big Creek project in the High Sierra, the company now has a capacity of 400,000 horse power of electric energy from this source. Other water power plants and the steam generating plants at Long Beach furnish an interconnected generating capacity of 1,051,000 horse power.

System improvements for the various districts scheduled in accordance with the new budget include the construction during the year of 12 new sub-stations, new sub-offices and three new stores and garages, in addition to the general re-enforcement of the distribution lines.

Finds Chickens (Feathered Kind) Locked In Garage

Samuel Roth, 1015 North Parton street, reported to police that he found two strange chickens in his garage yesterday.

The chickens were of the feathered variety and had been left there by someone who broke into the place. A .22 calibre rifle also was found by Roth. Police are trying to find the owners.

BOY INJURED WHEN KNOCKED FROM BIKE

Ralph Gill, 10, of 1127 Highland avenue, was injured early last night when he was knocked from his bicycle by an automobile, reported to police to have been driven by Powell E. Lonon, 41, of 511 West Second street.

The accident occurred on Highland avenue between Shelton and Bristol streets, near the boy's home. According to the report the youth rode out of a driveway into the path of the car, which struck him before Lonon could stop. It was dark and there was no light on the bicycle.

Young Gill was taken to his home.

WESTMINSTER

WESTMINSTER, Dec. 6.—Miss Fay McCall returned Sunday from Burbank, where the family spent Thanksgiving with relatives. Mrs. McCall returned home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mulholland spent Sunday in Laguna Beach, where they were entertained by the Misses Kleinknight.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Valentine, who are former Westminister residents, have just returned from an extended stay in the east and are again located in their home in the McCoy tract on Westminister boulevard and Nevada street. The family has been in Brighton, Colo.

Joe Walton is among those ill in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Chamberland spent Thanksgiving in Los Angeles, where they were among 11 guests entertained at a turkey dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beal.

Mr. and Mrs. Chamberland were at a wedding anniversary celebration, Sunday, held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper, friends of the Chamberland family. The Westminister baseball team played the L. A. Town club Sunday on the aviation field and the score was seven to two, the visiting team winning.

A number of Westminister men went hunting in the Morongo country Sunday, those in the party being D. Campbell, Paul Whitcomb, Iseninger, Francis Penhall, Loyal Skinner and Raymond Penhall.

Mrs. H. H. Curtis has been very ill at her home since last Friday, suffering from Bright's disease. Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Knox have been assisting in the care of Mrs. Curtis and she was reported as somewhat improved Tuesday.

Mrs. Robert Falcke, who has been ill, was reported as having sat up for the first time, Monday.

BAREBACK TRIP ON BEAR BACK THRILLS RIDER

YOSEMITE, Dec. 6.—The barest kind of a bare back ride is riding a bear bare back. Joe Anderson, local employee, will attest to this. Last night he rode a bear twenty-five yards before being thrown off.

Anderson had returned to his tent near Camp Curry. He pulled back the flap to enter. Without warning, a large black bear dashed out, running between his legs. Anderson, both frightened and surprised, straddled the bear and held on for dear life. After sprinting several yards in record time the bear abruptly turned north and Anderson kept going straight south.

Anderson is exhibiting two large handfuls of nice black fur for proof of his ride. He plans to have a fur collar made for his overcoat.

WINTERSBURG

WINTERSBURG, Dec. 6.—Members of the Epworth league of the Methodist church, south, of Talbot, were the invited guests Sunday evening of the Wintersburg Methodist league. The program was led by Miss Ethel Dwyer.

Church services were dismissed for the evening at the church and the Rev. Mr. Pope, local pastor, spoke to the young people.

A special vocal number was rendered by Mrs. Eva Heem and Mrs. Payne.

A special number is being held at the close of the Sunday school hour at the local church and on last Sunday a one-act play, "Thanksgiving Ann," was given by three of the young people, Miss Alberta Pratt, Miss Thelma Pratt and Kenneth Moore.

The Wintersburg Methodist Home Missionary society is this week preparing the shipment of Christmas goods which is yearly sent by the local society to the Francisco De Paugh Home and to the Yuma Indians. A barrel of canned fruits will go to the home while a shipment of lima beans will go to Yuma.

The Wintersburg church is planning roll call night for the evening of December 19, the special meeting to open with a pot luck supper early in the evening at the social hall. The pastor of the First Methodist church in Huntington Beach has accepted the invitation to be the speaker of the evening.

Mrs. C. Stockton went Sunday to Santa Ana to the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Sewell, where Mr. Sewell was confined by illness and Mrs. Sewell seemed to be taking the influenza. Everett Stockton, son of Mrs. Stockton, who has been ill at home, is improved.

Mrs. W. P. Preece and daughter, Lois and Gloria, are up again following a few days' illness with influenza. Lois, although better, did not attempt to attend school Monday.

John H. Bell, uncle of J. W. McIntosh, of this place, who is a former premier of Prince Edward Island, is to be the speaker next Sunday at a reception which is to be given for Canadian residents in Los Angeles. Mr. Bell, who is a yearly visitor in the McIntosh home, has been making a leisurely trip across the continent from his home and is expected soon at the McIntosh home.

The Golden West road west of Wintersburg has been plowed up ready for a finish to be put on.

Lester Horton, a nephew of Mrs. George Nichols, was in Wintersburg Sunday from Los Angeles as a guest in the Nichols home.

Miss Alma Vanduff, who is in training at the Orange County hospital, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Vanduff.

David Gardner injured one knee Sunday when he tripped in kicking a football. A gash, which required six stitches to close, was made when he struck the uneven ground. He is getting about on crutches.

A local Mexican, J. Marcel, died at his home Monday morning following an illness of a week. He leaves his widow and one small daughter.

Laurie Prescott, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thiebaud spent the week end in his grandparents' home, having returned with them from Long Beach, where a family reunion was held on Thanksgiving day. The young visitor, who attends Pomona college, returned to his school Sunday evening.

J. L. Chism, who has not been well for some time, has been quite ill for several days and plans going to the hospital to take a medical examination.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sowers spent Sunday in Los Angeles, taking dinner with them and visiting in the home of relatives who have been ill with influenza. Mr. and Mrs. Sowers found all of the patients greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lopp and daughter, their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Stouvenil and daughter, of Norwalk, and Mr. Lopp's brother, Ernest Lopp, picnicked Saturday at Orange County park.

Mrs. Tanksley, Mrs. McCausney and Mrs. Archer, of Huntington Beach, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lopp and on Monday evening they were visited by Mr. and Mrs. John Crowder, of Huntington Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spear and three children, who were visitors over the holiday in the home of Mrs. Spear's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Snasdell, left Sunday to motor to their home at McKittrick.

Mrs. Mills Cowling, Mrs. Rose, Jack and Joyce Phillips are among influenza patients in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold and William Chapman, who have been ill with influenza, are reported as convalescent.

Mrs. Joseph Hudson and son, Joe, and daughter, Lois; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Perry and son, Wallace; Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and son, Vernon, Ray McIntosh and Mrs. Rose Rowley, of Huntington Beach, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McIntosh.

Phantom Maid will prove the most welcome Christmas guest that can come to any home. With this splendid Hotpoint Range she is as good as a jewel of a cook in the kitchen. Saves hours of time; automatically regulates baking and roasting. Cooks everything quickly, tenderly, flavorfully delicious.

Electrical Refrigeration is recognized in thousands of homes as a health essential. No other system of food-keeping is so safe, so sure, so sanitary. General Electric places all of its vast experience, resources, reputation back of this splendid Electric Refrigerator, and a modest down payment places it in your home at Christmas-time.

Sweeping with an old-fashioned broom, that wears out rugs, tires backs, raises dangerous dust, won't be necessary in your home after this Christmas. Never was there a better time to order a Royal Electric Vacuum Cleaner.

It's Easy with this famous wringerless EASY WASHER to have a whole week's washing out of the way before the morning is half gone. It takes all the toil out of wash-day... washes everything snowily clean. Saves fabrics and wearing apparel. Even the tiresome task of wringing is banished.

Ironing becomes an interesting, pleasant half-day's task with this modern Ironrite Electric Ironer. It irons everything with its smooth, electric-heated roll. Simply sit in comfort and feed things in.

A real saving. So much better than the old-fashioned hot-water bottle. Two automatic thermostats make this Thermo pad absolutely safe. Three-heat switch adjustable to any heat in the dark. Size 12x15 inches. $4.95. This pad has never before sold for less than $6.50.

Two lovely slices of golden toast are prepared at one time on this fine Thermo toaster. No burned fingers turning toast... it turns itself. Made by makers of Universal appliances. Selling regularly at $5.50. Our price... "Turn Over" Toaster, $3.45.

Percolators... Always Popular. Every cup of coffee brings pleasant memories of your thoughtfulness. We have a variety of styles priced from $3.95 to $42.00.

An Edison Bargain for Christmas. No waiting for delicious waffles with this beautiful Westinghouse iron. The special process grids need no greasing after the first time. The heavy, highly polished nickel is easily kept clean. It's as bright, as pleasing, as ornamental as anything else one can place on the breakfast table... and how convenient! Electric Waffle Iron... only $8.95. Regularly priced at $10.00.

Only a Few of the many electrical gifts that are ideal for Christmas are suggested here. An early visit to your neighborhood dealer or the nearest Edison office will reveal scores of others.

BEFORE THE MIKE

The recent bridge tournament in Cleveland ended with WTAM broadcasting two hands played by the two outstanding teams which played for the final championship. An hour ordinarily given to musical entertainment was appropriated for this contest and by the response the station got almost immediately after the event the change was well made.

Julian C. Riley is considered one of Denver's leading young violinists. He's a teacher at the Denver College of Music and has played first violin for the last five years in the Denver Civic Symphony orchestra. But it isn't as a violinist that he has joined the staff of KOA in Denver. It's as an announcer. Riley, however, is no amateur at announcing either. He's been in the announcing game for three years and is considered one of the best in Denver.

WBBM, Chicago, doesn't forget the children, even to morning setting up exercises. Each Saturday morning is devoted to children's physical training. It's from 11 to 11:15, so the youngsters may sleep late.

More first-class music comes to us Sunday evenings, through the broadcasting of the Chicago Symphony orchestra, under Paul Stock. Dr. Stock is considered one of America's leading conductors.

Good breaks have been coming the way of William S. Lynch, latest addition to the announcing staff of the NBC. Lynch was the first to broadcast news of the arrival of the Graf Zeppelin, when he was at the top of the National Press building in Washington he described the ship to the NBC listeners. He has introduced several famous officials at Washington to the microphone and has thereby met other prominent persons. Lynch was in newspaper and theatrical work before he went to WRNY, New York, as announcer. He worked at three other stations before arriving in the Washington studios of the NBC.

Wendell Hall is back again. The "red-headed music maker" appears Tuesday and Thursday evenings on the Columbia system, from the key studios of WBBM, Chicago.

CLASSICS WILL BE STANDARD FEATURE

Presenting 14 selections chosen from the classics, the early works of the romantic movement and the compositions of European and American nationalists, the Standard Symphony hour will be broadcast through stations of the NBC system from 7:30 to 8:30 tonight. Classic numbers, which will be heard first, include an interesting "Cavotie" by Bach and a famous short composition by Beethoven, the "Minuet in G."

Goshen Center To Hold Annual Fair

The annual fair of the Ladies' Aid society of Goshen Center will be held in the "Memory Lane" hour broadcast through the stations of the NBC system from 8:30 to 9:30 tonight. The program will bring back from the mists of 20 years ago the old-fashioned bazaar with its fancywork made by the members of the Ladies' Aid, the doll booths, the rag rugs and all the other things of long ago. The songs will be those of the 1890 to 1910 period.

RADIO 'HEIGHT SOUNDER' MAY BE LIFE SAVER

BY ISRAEL KLEIN

(Science Editor, NEA Service)

A little radio instrument on the dash of airplane cockpits in the future may be the means of saving the lives of pilots flying through thick fog over treacherous country. The instrument is the development of Dr. E. F. W. Alexanderson, famous radio engineer and consultant for the General Electric company. From the company's laboratory in Schenectady, N. Y., Dr. Alexanderson makes this announcement.

What his instrument does is tell the pilot, by either sound or sight, exactly how high he is above ground at any point in the course of his flight. Whether he is traveling over level country or mountainous territory, whether in the night or thick of fog, he can quickly calculate his varying height from the way line drawn by this instrument before him or from the changing tone of its oscillator.

The value of this innovation in flying is practically limitless. No instrument at present measures absolute altitude above ground. The barometric altimeter is a great aid to aerial navigation but it measures only relative altitude, the height of the plane above the point or location for which the instrument had originally been set.

Danger Despite Altimeter
Let the plane remain on an even keel, no matter how the ground changes beneath, the altimeter will keep its needle at the same point. The danger of striking into the side of a mountain looming up suddenly out of the fog is obvious. Pilots have already met their deaths this way in the Alleghenies and in the Rockies.

Dr. Alexanderson's apparatus is a radio "height-sounding" instrument like the "depth-sounder" used on ships at sea. Instead of using sound waves, however, the airplane "height-sounder" uses radio waves.

Since radio waves travel at almost the speed of light, the time interval for the return of a wave sent out by the airplane transmitter is so short that indirect methods of measurement have to be resorted to. One such method, devised by Dr. Alexanderson, is applied to this instrument.

This is done by sending out a wave of known length from the oscillator of the instrument on the plane and catching it on its rebound from the ground. As it is picked up it can be discerned by its squeal.

Every time the airplane changes its height above the ground by half this wavelength the whistling note would go through an entire tone cycle from a low pitch to high pitch and back to low. By counting these tone cycles the altitude could be determined, the measuring stick being one-half the wavelength of the oscillator.

Tells Height Blindfolded
By these changing notes, Dr. Alexanderson in a test airplane could determine the height of the plane up to 1000 feet although he was blindfolded.

The graphic method of logging the changing phases of this wavelength, however, measures the height up to 4000 feet.

All this would be rather rough estimation. But if the pilot wants to determine his height more accurately, Dr. Alexanderson has devised a definite test.

"Let us assume," he explains, "that the pilot can change the wavelength of the instrument eight per cent by pressing a key. By successively pressing the key he may observe practically simultaneously upon two curves, one at 100 meters wavelength and one at 92 meters."

"If the operator observes that the two curves are in phase—that is, they coincide at definite intervals—it means that the altitude is six wavelengths or 2000 feet. If the curves are out of phase it means that the altitude is either 1000 or 3000 feet."

FASHION TICKER
Dorothy Randall and her "Town Shoppers," from WBZ, Springfield, is likened to a stock ticker which interests male members of the family so much. Dorothy has been given the name "fashion ticker" because her 15-minute program is conversant with the styles and fashions flaunted on Paris boulevards, Park avenue and Beacon street.

need for a third. But the tot's father, a World war veteran, had expended his small savings in striving to keep life in his son, so the radio broadcast an appeal for volunteers.

Scores of listeners in offered blood. And one of these was deemed necessary. So the operation was performed and last night Lester was expected to recover.

1500 Appear Before Mike In Auditions

With a list of applicants totaling 1500, auditions for the free concert-radio debuts offered by the National Broadcasting company for new young artists selected by the National Music league has begun. An audition committee of 10, chosen by the league, will pass on the candidates.

George Engles, director of the National Broadcasting and Concert bureau, which is arranging for the debuts, said that final decision as to the winners will rest on a double audition heard by two groups of judges. One group, seated in the auditorium with the artist, will decide on his abilities as a concert performer; the other group will hear the performance over an amplifier and pass upon the artist's broadcasting qualifications. Such a final test is essential, Engles explained, because the debuts will be of a combined concert and radio nature.

Practically every state in the country is represented on the list.

SPECIAL YULE PROGRAMS TO BE PUT ON AIR

Christmas season will be especially significant in the musical offerings of the National Broadcasting company. Don E. Gilman, manager of the Pacific division, in San Francisco, announced today. Three special programs in observance of Christmas have been arranged.

In keeping with the holiday spirit, Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" will be presented as the "Golden Legend," Saturday, December 22, from 9 to 10 p. m. The special radio dramatization will be under the direction of Ted Maxwell.

All the characters of the story will be included, even down to Tiny Tim, who, with his "God Bless Us Everyone," is known and loved by children the world over.

First of all there will be "Old Scrooge," the mean, miserly old fellow who didn't believe in

SPLITDORF REIGN GOES TO EDISON

Thomas A. Edison and company has acquired "a substantial interest" in the Splitdorf Radio corporation. Splitdorf products will be taken off the market by the end of the year. The company will devote itself almost entirely to making radio equipment for the controlling company.

The new officers of the Splitdorf Radio corporation will be Charles Edison, chairman of the board; Walter Rautenstrauch, president; Donald Ross, vice president and secretary; Arthur L. Walsh, vice president in charge of sales; Ralph H. Allen, vice president in charge of finance and operation; H. F. Miller, treasurer, and Henry Lanahan, general counsel.

The newly created finance committee, consisting of Charles Edison, Mr. Allen and Mr. Ross, will control the finances of the Splitdorf Radio corporation and the Splitdorf Bethlehem Electrical company, parent company of all Splitdorf interests.

KGO TO PRESENT CHRISTMAS PLAY

Helen Norris, hailed as the first radio playwright to gain fame, has written a Christmas vehicle for the KGO Players entitled "Frankincense and Myrrh," the aerial curtain on which will rise at 7:30 Thursday night, December 20.

All of Helen Norris' knowledge of the radio drama was acquired in her home, hundreds of miles from KGO, where the little shut-in sat night after night making an intense study of radio technique.

LIGHT POLE NOT TREE
The electrocution and cremation of a cat on the power lines between the studio and the broadcasting plant of CKGW, Toronto, was responsible for that station being off the air recently. The cat had been chased up a pole by a dog and the firemen's hose had sent it tumbling across the high tension wires.

IF TELEVISION SHOULD RECORD INAUGURAL—

Sitting in front of a new type of receiver, some lucky radio fans may see, as well as hear, the inauguration of Herbert Hoover. The sketch shows how the Hoover inaugural would look, with television instruments scanning the scene as Chief Justice Taft administers the oath of office.

PRESIDENT-ELECT HOOVER IS PLANNING TO ABOLISH RADIO COMMISSION, INTIMATES SAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—There has been much discussion among radio men in Washington as to what Herbert Hoover, as president, will do about the broadcasting situation.

Some are of the opinion that he will recommend that the federal radio commission will be abolished and that control of radio be returned to the department of commerce, where it was before congress created the commission. As secretary of commerce, Hoover was in direct charge of radio.

Commenting on the suggestion that he did not think that the new administration would want to be burdened with radio problems in the cabinet.

One leading radio man, who had discussed the subject with Hoover, said:

"Hoover is opposed to the radio commission. I firmly believe he is justified in that viewpoint, as I have worked in close contact with the federal radio commission and I realize, as does Hoover, that some of the members do not understand the problems that confront them and they are blocking progress."

"There is no doubt that radio controlled by the department of commerce will be handled on a business basis. It will be a good thing for broadcasting because the commissioners representing various zones, are continually wrangling for the stations in their own territories and that stirs up discord and impedes progress. The department of commerce will have no partisan views and will have the interest of the entire country at heart."

Great Inventions on Job
This was the work of E. F. W. Alexanderson and his staff of General Electric engineers in Schenectady. Alexanderson has since improved on his apparatus so that he can visualize a larger scene than a person's head and broadcast it with the aid of daylight.

In the Bell Telephone laboratories in New York, Dr. Herbert E. Ives, famous optical expert, has been developing a television apparatus that has broadcast scenes in daylight and transmitted them to large "screens" consisting of rows of neon tubes.

The received images, so far, have been rather vague and jumpy. But they show great promise toward perfection of as good reproduction as we see today in the movies.

In Washington, C. Francis Jenkins, the noted inventor, comes forth with a more highly developed receiver for television. On the basis of the new principle he employs in transmitting and reception, he predicts that the coming inaugural ceremonies will be seen as well as heard by radio.

2304 Tiny Lamps
Jenkins' new apparatus demands the use of 2304 tiny lamps in the radio-vision receiving equipment whereby the light for producing the incoming picture is multiplied many thousand times.

In other words, that deception of the eye which makes for persistence of vision is displaced by the persistence of light in the novel radio-vision receiver which Jenkins is now building. Just as the illumination of the electric-light bulb in our home or office lingers for a moment after the switch has been snapped off, the exciting current employed in this radical principle of visual radio persists for an appreciable time—about one-tenth of a second.

At present, at least three methods of transmitting and receiving pictures by radio are in vogue—the scanning disk, first used in 1884; a lens disk, in which tiny lenses are placed over the scanning-disk holes; and the so-called drum-scanner, recently designed by Jenkins.

The latter device, resembling

KGO's Farm Program To Be Extended

Howard Milholland, studio manager of KGO, announces that the General Electric station's farm programs will take a new lease on life starting at 6:30 tonight.

This program will mark the extension of KGO's farm radio service from 30 minutes to 60 minutes, enabling the station to give this feature more variety by preceding each talk with musical attractions particularly appealing to the rural audience.

KGO will strive to surpass the high standard set by former farm programs over the General Electric broadcaster. Specialists from the federal and state departments of agriculture and the University of California college of agriculture in Davis will co-operate with KGO by contributing to the speaking program. The University of California extension division will continue to conduct the question box, giving farmers expert advice sought by them through KGO.

U. S. COMMERCE BODY TO CHECK WAVE LENGTHS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Whether radio stations are maintaining their assigned frequencies is a question which the department of commerce soon will be able to answer with accuracy.

In his annual report to the secretary of commerce, W. D. Terrell, chief of the radio division, points out that special radio receivers and frequency measuring equipment have been ordered which will permit placing in operation a system of accurate frequency measurements.

One constant frequency station will be installed in a centrally located mid-western state. Radio receivers as sensitive as any obtainable will be a part of this apparatus, together with equipment which will permit measurements of frequencies to be made, on any radio signal received, with a high degree of accuracy. The useful frequency ranges over which it will be possible to make measurements will be from 10 to 30,000 kilocycles.

This monitoring station will be able to measure the frequencies of a large portion of the United States stations whose signals are capable of interfering with American stations. On the higher frequencies the latter consideration is already of great importance and is becoming a serious matter.

To supplement the work to be done by the constant-frequency stations located in the geographic center of the United States, secondary standards of frequency and receivers will be installed in the offices of the supervisors of radio and sub-offices of the division. With this equipment it will be possible to make highly accurate measurements of frequency over a range between 100 and 30,000 kilocycles.

KTM Will Present Jewish Programs

A series of Jewish programs, to be started at 8 o'clock Monday night over KTM, Santa Monica, will interpret, in song, dance, instrumental music and dialogue, the Jewish history. The series, in which noted Jewish artists are to appear, has been titled "The Epic of Israel," and will be presented in English and Jewish.

MANY FAIL TO CHECK GROUND AND ANTENNA

By THE RADIO EDITOR

From the data blanks coming in from Santa Ana radio fans we have concluded that much of the noise and racket marring radio reception originates in the homes in the neighborhood.

One fan wrote that he had several appliances in his home that made noise on his radio but that these did not bother him because he shut down his radio when these were in use. Well, that is fine—as far as he is concerned. But, has he considered the fact that these same devices interfere with radio reception for all fans within two or more blocks on each side of his home? In a case like this there is only one thing to do. Get that noise ended right at its source. This fan, for a few dollars, can improve radio reception for everyone in his neighborhood. We wonder if he will. Another phase of the situation which becomes more clear through these data sheets is that a lot of fans expect more of their sets than they possibly can get under existing conditions.

This Fan's Fortune
One fan writes in that he gets all local stations except Seattle and quite a few eastern stations, but also gets some noise. This fan is fortunate, indeed. There are hundreds of local fans who cannot get good reception of local stations and it is for these fans that this "interference survey" is primarily intended. Naturally, by improving the conditions for fans who cannot get good local reception we also will help the DX fan, but first of all we are going to take care of those with the real serious condition—that of not being able to get satisfactory reception of the locals. After these bad conditions are cleaned up we will then comb the district for noises interfering with DX reception, but this probably will be two to three months hence.

Another thing apparent is that fans do not understand the whistles they are getting on certain stations under the new allocation plan. When the reallocation plan was worked out, in order to provide waves for all stations, it was necessary, in many cases, to put more than one station on the same wavelength.

On Same Waves
The radio commission endeavored to have these stations far enough apart that there would be no interference. Let us consider the waves assigned to KFQZ. This station is rated 1900 watts and normally would be received very satisfactorily. However, on the same wave is KWKH, Shreveport, La. This station is rated at 20,000 watts, and, as most of us know, comes in like a local. When these two stations are operating at the same time a whistle is heard above the music and of course the program is spoiled. The whistle is known as heterodyning and there is absolutely nothing that you or we can do about it except to wait for action by the commission.

Still again many fans are complaining because their sets are not selective enough. Some of these complaints are undoubtedly just, but the majority of them are made because the complaining fan does not thoroughly understand the existing conditions under the new reallocation.

Many Off Waves
Quite a few stations are operating off their assigned wave as part of the time. Now we do not mean to infer that this is intentional—quite the contrary. When you stop to realize that practically all of the stations in the country had to change their waves and that only a small portion have been able to secure delivery of

BOARD LISTENS WHEN STATIONS SEEK CHANGES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Several stations appealing to the federal radio commission for modification of their broadcasting licenses under the new allocation have been given hearings by the federal radio commission. Stations protesting the applications for modification also offered testimony at the hearing. All the cases were taken under advisement.

KFJZ, Fort Worth, Texas, requested that its license be changed so as to increase the station's power from 100 to 2000 watts, and reduce its frequency from 1570 to 1540 kilocycles. Full time operation on the 1540 kc channel, now assigned to KFQB, Fort Worth, and WJAD, Waco, Texas, was asked. Thomas P. Littlefield, of Washington, D. C., attorney for KFJZ, argued that case, and former Representative Frank D. Scott, of Michigan, appeared on behalf of the two other stations.

Two cases involving WSSH, Boston, operated by the Tremont Temple Baptist church, were heard. These involved modification of the station license for assignment on 1360 kilocycles instead of the reallocation assignment of 1420 under the allocation. The station also requested an increase in power from 100 to 500 watts. The other case of this station was for a construction permit to operate on 1940 kilocycles with 500 watts of power.

WENR Selfish In Demand For Full Time, Say Solons

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Three U. S. senators, before the federal radio commission recently, opposed granting full time to WENR, Chicago, on the ground it was owned by the public utility interests that wanted to broadcast propaganda. The senators were Norris, of Nebraska; Walsh, of Montana, and Brookhart, of Iowa.

The Great Lakes Broadcasting corporation operates the station. This corporation is composed of seven public utility companies. At present WENR shares time with WLS, formerly owned by Sears-Roebuck, but now owned by "The Prairie Farmer."

"The power trusts have controlled a good part of the earth," said Senator Norris. "They ought to let us have the air."

Senator Norris referred to the disclosures before the federal trade commission of dubious practices by utility companies in spreading propaganda. Senator Walsh went into the subject in detail. John A. Wing, attorney for WENR, said the three senators knew very little, if anything, about the station's programs. Wing submitted telegrams from Governor Small and Governor-elect Emerson, as well as from other Illinois officials, commending WENR as a station of public service, convenience and necessity.

operated by the United States Broadcasting corporation, was heard on its application to change its frequency from 1400 to 920 kilocycles, and to increase its power from 500 to 1000 watts. Other stations on the docket and their requests are:

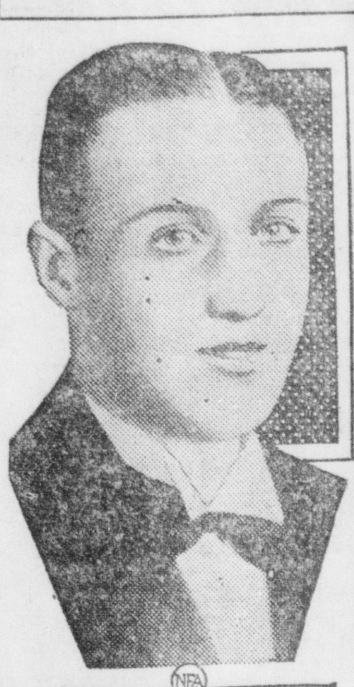

WODA, Patterson, N. J., operated by R. E. O'Day, modification of license from 1250 kilocycles to 920 kilocycles, retaining its 1000 watts.

WBBC, operated by the Brooklyn Broadcasting company, at Brooklyn, N. Y., change from 1400 kilocycles to 920 kilocycles, and change in power from 500 watts to 1000 watts night operation, with 5000 watts daylight.

WHJ, Newark, operated by the Radio Investment company, modification from 1450 kilocycles to 1120 kilocycles, retaining 250 watts.

Short Wavelength to Send Program to Plantation In Liberia

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—A new kind of radio representation began December 3 with the inauguration of a series of radio programs known as the "Voice of Firestone."

The innovation is three-fold: 1. The same program will be given twice in one evening. At 8 o'clock, eastern time, 32 stations on the WEAF network of the NBC system will broadcast the feature. At 10:30, eastern time, 24 of these stations will link up with six on the Pacific coast and broadcast the program again.

2. Station WGY, on this chain, will rebroadcast the program each time on a short wavelength, so that it may be picked up at the Firestone rubber plantation in Liberia, West Africa, as well as the offices of the company in London. 3. Vaughn de Leath, the "original radio girl," Franklin Baur, famous tenor; the Choristers, leading radio octette, and the 35-piece orchestra, led by Hugo Mariani, will entertain.

This unique combination goes on the air twice every Monday night.

DX Reception Conditions

Oh yes, We tried—And that Just about Tells the story. Those questionnaires Surely should Come pouring in After Last night's Racket! We got: A squeak from WLW, a whistle from WMAQ and five minutes of music from WENR.

SELECTION OF STATE BIRD UP TO RADIO FANS

The problem of selecting a bird representative of California, to take its place with those that already have been chosen as official state birds in the United States, is being put up to the radio audience by KGO, through Bert Harwell, chairman of the Cooper ornithological club.

Radio stations and newspapers have been selected by the Audubon Societies of California and the Cooper Ornithological club as the best medium to secure a popular expression of choice for a representative bird. Both of these organizations have had an important part in starting the movement for a state bird. KGO is the official station for the contest.

Dr. Harold C. Bryant, director of the bureau of education for the fish and game commission, launched the radio campaign with his appearance before the KGO microphones several weeks ago. He represented the state of California.

Bert Harwell, in his talks over the General Electric station, illustrates his talks with bird calls and gives information as to how the vote is coming in to KGO. His talks on California birds are given over KGO every Thursday night, starting at 8:30.

It is promised that some of the birds will be heard over the radio during the campaign. Indications of wide interest in the selection of a state bird is found in the groups which have already promised support.

The promoters of the campaign have selected the following birds for candidacy because of their striking plumage, beautiful song, state-wide distribution, economic importance and friendly habits.

Anna hummingbird, Audubon warbler, black-headed grosbeak, bluebird, brown towhee, bullock oriole, bush-tit, California condor, California thrasher, California valley quail, California woodpecker, canyon wren, green-backed goldfinch, purple finch, red-shafted flicker, roadrunner, russet-

Musical Comedy Hits To Feature GMC Radio Party

A program of the most popular musical comedy hits of 1928 will be presented in the Bulck hour of the General Motors family party on Monday night by a concert orchestra under the direction of Frank Black, a quartet and two soloists, Nancy Holbrook, soprano, and Robert Adams, tenor.

Among the selections will be songs from "The Scandals," "Hold Everything," "Three Cheers," "The Desert Song," "Show Boat" and "The Connecticut Yankee." The entertainment will be broadcast from New York by the National Broadcasting company and 35 associated stations, including the Orange network to the Pacific coast.

Christmas. N. Anthony Baker will depict the character.

Ghosts to Appear

Then there will be Marley's ghost, the "Ghost of the Christmas Spirit" and the "Ghost of the Christmas Present," both of whom appear before Scrooge and change his whole Christmas attitude.

Bob Cratchit, Martha and all the little Cratchits will be speaking over the radio, giving the lines of the story life they might lack on a printed page.

Traditional Christmas music and favorite Yuletide tunes of every nation will be heard in "Christmas in Many Lands," broadcast Monday night, December 24, from 9:30 to 11 o'clock. The first half hour of this special program replaces the regular "Slumber Hour" presentation.

George Friedrich Handel's greatest oratorio, "The Messiah," will be presented as the feature broadcast Christmas afternoon from 2 backed thrush, sparrow hawk, water ouzel, western tanager, wren-tit and California gull.

When a popular vote has been secured, a petition will be presented to the state legislature asking for official recognition.

to 5 o'clock, under the direction of Max Dolin. The production will bring before the microphone a special 25-piece orchestra and a group of 20 singers, including Grace Northrup, soprano; Eva Gruninger, Atkinson, contralto; Gwynnd Jones, tenor, and Maynard Jones, basso.

Reflects Genius

"The Messiah" represents the mature work of Handel's genius and reflects the noblest aspirations and the most exalted devotion of mankind. Among all his oratorios it retains its original freshness, vigor and beauty in the highest degree, in that it appeals to the loftiest sentiment and to universal religious devotion. It is based upon the most harmonious, symmetrical and enduring forms of the musical art. It was commenced on Aug. 22, 1741, and finished the same year on September 14. The text is taken literally from Scripture and the libretto arranged by Charles Jennens.

SEVEN YEARS have seen dozens of makes come and go—shoot like brilliant stars across the radio sky and then disappear.

But Zenith has maintained steadily its position of supremacy in the manufacture of high quality sets. It has never faltered from the path of finest design, best material and most careful, accurate workmanship in receivers. Only in that way can true radio satisfaction be built into sets. Quality goes in before the name goes on—that is why Zenith has so long been the world's largest manufacturer of high grade radio.

the hub of a wheel with its tiny glass-rod spokes, is said to permit light to flow through these quartz rods like water rushing through a pipe. However, even with the use of this new drum-scanning device, the elementary area of a picture being received by radio is illuminated only one 2304th part of the whole time—again calling for deception of the eye.

"And let me remind you," asserts Jenkins, "that the apparent intensity of illumination of the whole picture is the intensity of the light coming to the eye from a single elementary area, divided by the elementary time fraction, which is also equal to the number of elementary areas, namely 2304. That is why the picture seems so dully lighted when the machine is running, though the scanning spot is very bright when the machine stops.

"Multiplying this light reduction by the fractional inefficiency of the current, it will be seen that the total current-light efficiency on the eye in the scanning-disk method is less than 1-50,000th of one per cent."

Because of a similar light limitation in the drum-scanner, Jenkins is looking to a new principle for solving the immediate problem of television.

SEIBERLINGS TO REPEAT THEIR KREISLER SONG

From the wings of the radio stage, the Seiberling Singers' quartet will step forth tonight and repeat its performance, in vocal arrangement, of Kreisler's "Caprice Viennois." It will be a curtain call and the singers will take it in response to what should be a record for uninterrupted handclapping, even by mail—eight months.

Ever since they first sang the famous violin transcription, made by Frank Black, program director of the Seiberling hour and one of the foremost of modern arrangers and composers, they have been receiving requests for an encore. Even in the midst of the deluge of letters which flooded their mail bags after they sang Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" there were cries of, "Do the 'Caprice' again."

So now they're going to do it. The program promises, besides, a request performance by the quartet of Deppen's "Aloha, Sun-

Only 15 Per Cent Of AC Homes Have AC Radios, Claim

CINCINNATI, Dec. 6.—Although there are approximately 9,500,000 American homes equipped with alternating current, only about 15 per cent of them, at most, are provided with AC radio receivers, said H. Curtiss Abbott, general sales manager of the Crosley Radio corporation.

Most of those who have electric sets obtained them during the present year and every radio manufacturer has been taxed to his production ability to provide this output.

set Land" and at least two other selections worth spending an evening at home for—a special violin chorus transcription, by Black, of Braga's "Angel's Serenade" and Jude's "The Mighty Deep," one of the most famous of bass solos.

On this musical pre-Christmas tree, Phil Ohman and Victor Arden will hang a special two-piano arrangement of "Love's Old Sweet Song," by Molloy. James Melton, Seiberling's own tenor, will sing for the millions of listeners who dial the Seiberling hour especially to hear his golden voice, Hageman's lovely ballad, "Do Not Go My Love" and "Grieving," by Axtell.

The Seiberling Singers go on the air Thursday night from 6 to 6:30 p. m., Pacific coast time.

their new crystal controls, which keep them to their assigned frequencies, you will understand why stations are smearing over each other. Inasmuch as the largest plant manufacturing these controls has an output of only 20 per week, it will take a few weeks before conditions are really right. When that time comes, it is time enough to kick about the selectivity of your set.

Many fans are complaining about not being able to receive station KGEF satisfactorily. We believe that this condition, too, will right itself. KGEF does not have the best wave in the world to work on and it is in a place where there is plenty of competition. A few of the high priced sets can play the station satisfactorily but if you don't own one of these few you will just have to be patient.

Won't the fans state whether their sets are AC or battery operated? Noise on an AC set and noise on a battery set may sound the same, but sometimes they have quite different sources. Give us full information and we will give you action.

Check Your Antenna

How many of you have checked your antenna systems? We drove around town the other day and, judging from some of the baling wire we saw on poles over houses, this question is not receiving enough attention. Many fans are using antenna made of one or more pieces of wire spliced together and tied to a couple of poles with no insulators or soldered joints. The wonder is that they are able to hear anything but noise. Others have fine installations except that their rambling roses or vines are doing a fine climbing job up the lead-in wire.

We know there is one fan who is wondering what become of that snapping noise he was complaining of. We drove up to his home and looked over his ground connections. He was using one of the best ground clamps available and using No. 14 solid copper wire, but we were able to lift the wire out of the clamp without even half trying. In other words he was using the right kind of wire and the right kind of clamp but apparently had not bothered to make a good tight connection. Naturally every time the wire was moved he would get a loud snapping noise and would get a frying noise most of the time.

Check up on your antenna and ground system and if they are not properly installed have them changed.

Check up on your appliances. If they interfere with your radio they are likewise interfering with your neighbors' sets. Tell us what they are and we will tell you how to fix them. Of course it will cost you a few dollars, but isn't it worth it? You paid plenty for your radio, why not spend a few dollars more and get the reception you should get.

Your committee is working with the big problems such as interference caused by the utilities and industrial concerns. You must take care of these minor problems. We will advise you, even you who you can get to fix your appliances, but you must stand the small expense involved.

We are getting favorable reports from every community in which the committee has worked. Yours will come just as soon as you give us the information we need. However, you must cooperate. Remember, if your washing machine or sewing machine is making a racket, it is just so much harder to find the other noises and stop them.

Troubled no longer by spells of dizziness

Bothered with stomach and back all his life, this man was subject to such spells of dizziness that he could hardly stand up. "I haven't had a dizzy spell since I began taking Agmel," he writes. Letters from people benefited by Agmel are received daily. One says: "A siege of influenza left me so weak I could scarcely get around. Then I started to take Agmel. I now feel so well I can't seem to realize my good fortune."

What is Agmel? A great natural health food. The sap of the Mexican Agave plant concentrated by removing excess water. Nothing added. Extraordinarily rich in important minerals and other vital elements necessary for the proper adjustment and functioning of the body. A mild tonic. Not a medicine. Non-alcoholic. Thousands praise Agmel. If you have any of the following symptoms, investigate Agmel today: headaches, backaches, gynecuria, and frequent necessity to get up at night, etc. Ask your druggist about Agmel. Or write direct to The Agmel Corporation, 260 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y.

USE OF RADIO IN OIL SEARCH IS ADVOCATED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Use of geophysical methods in prospecting for oil is advocated by the acting director of the bureau of mines, O. P. Hood, in a statement filed with the federal radio commission in support of the application of oil companies for short wave radio channels with which to carry on geophysical explorations.

Hood quoted Scott Turner, director of the bureau of mines, who had said:

"I wish to call to your attention two important uses for radio for which provision should be made before the practicable bands are finally apportioned. These uses are (1) for geophysical prospecting and (2) for experimentation in the possible use of radio as an aid to the rescue of entombed miners."

New Means Needed

"The easily found mineral deposits, both of metals and of oil and gas, have apparently been located. The remaining deposits are mostly those which are deeply covered or of which the structures are obscured."

"It is, therefore, plain that means for finding them other than the methods heretofore in use must be developed. The newer methods are known as geophysical methods because they deal with the physical characteristics of the earth's crust. The methods are becoming more and more refined and must continually be improved."

"A number of these methods depend on a signal from a central location which is received through the earth at stations some distance away."

"The retardation or acceleration of the signals through the earth gives a clue to the structures below, and thus to the location of a desired deposit. In order to ascertain the retardation or acceleration of the signals through the earth, use is made of radio waves to signal simultaneously to the various stations."

Nearly Instantaneous

"The radio signals are so nearly instantaneous in their flight to the stations that they make a good yardstick for measuring the speed of the earth waves. The power used is small, probably never over 100 watts, and the range of the waves is ordinarily less than 50 miles. Most of the

SCHOOLS ARE HARD PRESSED FOR RADIO

Every possible means of obtaining radios is being resorted to by schools throughout the country to listen to Walter Damrosch's RCA educational hour for school children.

Casual references in the thousands of letters received at the offices of the Radio Corporation of America and the National Broadcasting company reveal that radio equipment is being borrowed from private homes for school use, bought by individual teachers out of their own savings, loaned by public-spirited business men and even home-constructed by pupils, so that the Friday morning musical programs given by the dean of American conductors may be heard.

Also the sale of sets and parts has been accelerated.

ASK SCIENTISTS TO TEACH OVER RADIO

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 6.—Addressing the Associated Business Paper Editors, at their fall conference in New York City, M. H. Aylesworth, president of the National Broadcasting company, said that he hoped that "prominent educators and scientists will step out of their hermitages and speak to every red schoolhouse in the country, over the radio."

He said that radio will decide future elections, and declared the recent big vote in the presidential contest was due largely to interest in the campaign fostered through radio addresses.

He found that the radio served to inform women of the issues better than they were informed previously, hence they took a great interest in voting.

prospecting is done in regions remote from radio stations, and therefore offers a minimum of interference.

"The continuing discovery of ore, oil, and gas deposits is a matter which concerns the public welfare to an enormous extent, and is comparable in its importance to the continuance of transportation facilities. The need of the reservation of powers up to 100 watts is very great and will probably increase with time. Representatives of the National Research 'council, private corporations, and of the geological survey have all urged the bureau to use its good offices in this matter."

MORE IN CANADA
Two new stations are listed in the latest government bulletin of Canadian radio broadcasting stations, bringing the number up to 78. CJRX in Winnipeg, operating on 25.6 meters with 2000 watts, and CKX, a 500-watt station in Brandon, Manitoba, on 55.6 meters, are the additions.

PHONE BY RADIO
The outlying parts of the province of British Columbia are to be given a radio telephone service, according to George H. Halse, chairman of the British Columbia Telephone company. Due to the rugged nature of the province regular telephone lines cannot be established in many parts.

HE WASN'T GOALED
New York university, a team which once was nominated as the national champion, has two of the greatest tackles a team ever enjoyed in Lassarman and Grant. And they are other things than football artists.

Grant is the intercollegiate heavyweight champion boxer and Lassarman is a former champion and therein lies an interesting story. Lassarman was the 1926 champion and he was so good that he was besieged by professional managers who saw him in a great prospect for the heavyweight championship. With Lassarman as the ace of an ordinary team, New York U. entered a team in the national championship tournament, but Lassarman broke his leg during the football season and could not defend his title. The New York management did not want to withdraw the team, but there was no one to substitute for Lassarman. Grant then offered himself as a volunteer victim. He had never boxed in competition, but he was the biggest and fastest man in the

Willard, Lathrop Clash Tomorrow

GAME BETWEEN JUNIOR HIGHS CLOSES SEASON

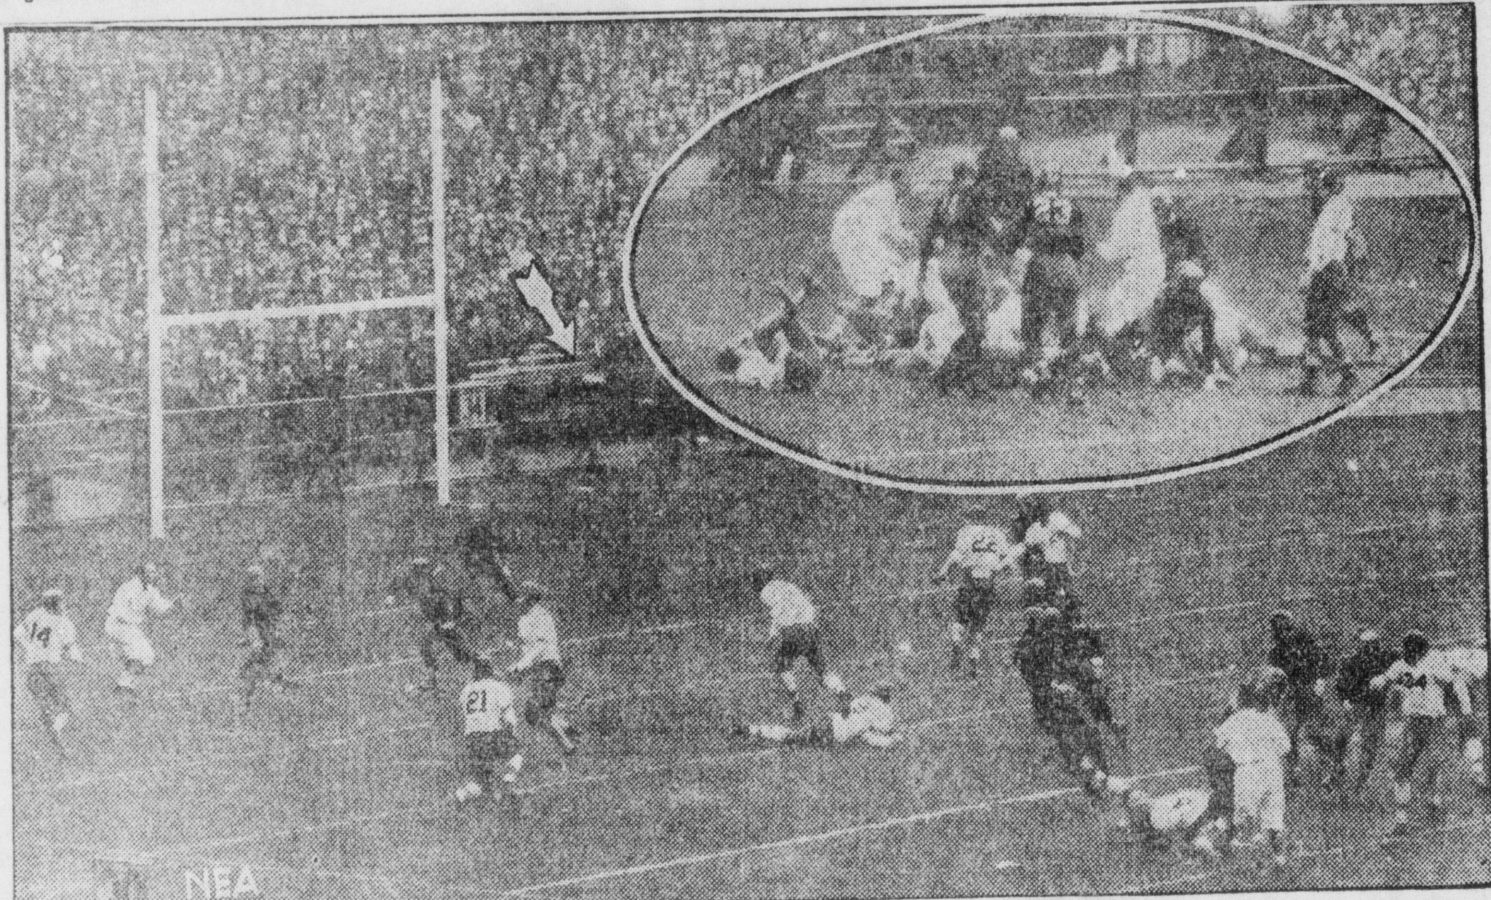

Santa Ana's hectic 1928 football season will be drawn to a dramatic conclusion tomorrow afternoon when the city's two junior high school eleven—Frances E. Willard of North Main street and Julia C. Lathrop of South Main street—collide at Poly field at 2:30 o'clock. A nominal admission fee will be charged students and adults.

Tomorrow's contest will be the first time in two years that the local schools have met on the gridiron, the last set to being in 1926 when the Spartans won 26 to 0 with Crumley, Pangle, Reichstein, Meisinger and a few other Lathrop contributions to high school eleven were just beginning their football careers.

This year's battle is apt to be anybody's as Willard has one of the strongest backfield combinations in several years with Blower, Chavez and Bell. The Lathrop squad is in bad shape, Coach Ferris Scott's chief worry being whether or not he will be able to make the weight limit of 150 pounds. Charles Dyer, 165-pound tackle, has given up all hope of being able to play while "Plue" Richards, ace fullback; J. P. Parsons, guard, and Wallace, tackle, are all too near the danger line for comfort. Scott has sufficient reserve for his line but if Richards has to drop out of the backfield he will leave a hole very hard to fill. Lewis, the Lathrop quarterback who was injured last week at Anaheim, will probably be able to start while Bowe and Kidder will be at their regular back positions. If Richards is unable to participate, Paul Dunn probably will be shifted from end to fullback. Then Rogers and Hamilton would have to take care of the wing assignments. Manderscheid and Wallace the tackle positions, Nuzum and Parsons the guards and Carlson center. Frances Willard never has taken a decision from their South Main street rivals but Coach "Swede" Lund hopes for the best tomorrow although his boys are certain to be outweighed whether or not Richards and some of the others are unable to make the weight. The Indians have a light, fast team which may spill the dope if they get started. The contest will be of unusual interest in that it will introduce to the public a number of the boys who in future years will wear the colors of Santa Ana high school on the turf.

'SONS OF STANFORD RED' RUN ROUGHSHOD OVER CADETS

Before 80,000 howling fans who packed Yankee stadium in New York, the Leland Stanford gridsters of California are pictured here in their victorious onslaught against the powerful West Pointers. You see here an excellent bit of action in the first quarter, when Coach "Pop" Warner's men opened a brilliant series of plunges and passes against the cadets. Hoffman, Stanford fullback (No. 34, at the extreme right) has thrown a long pass which was caught by Preston (No. 14, at extreme left). Arrow shows the ball in flight. In the inset is Stanford's first touchdown, when Hoffman plunged through center to cross the line.

CHAVEZ VICTOR OVER GILLETTE AT FOUST CLUB

An inspired Zenaydo Chavez, a Chavez with the same old right hand but with greater aggressiveness and more boxing sense, won as he pleased in the main event at Henry T. Foust's Orange County Athletic club last night. A big turnout gave the Santa Ana sensation, champion welter of the Western A. A. A., a nice reception when the judges gave him a clinch decision over "Frenchie" Gillette, Santa Monica lad. The bout went the legitimate three rounds, Gillette proving a rugged customer with an ability to shake off the touches. Chavez had him rolling around on the floor in the first and stuck him on his back five times in the third but Gillette had an annoying way of staggering up after each and every fall. Zenaydo, usually content to lose the first round to test the power of an opponent's punches, bored right in on Gillette at the outset and flailed away with both fists, a swinging right hand to the bread-basket, dropping the Frenchman for a long count in the first. Gillette was on the run from there on but Chavez caught him in the

Sharkey Meets Dempsey In June, Claim

BOSTON, Dec. 6.—Jack Sharkey will meet Jack Dempsey in the New York Yankee stadium in June, according to Johnny Buckley, Sharkey's manager here today. First, however, Sharkey has to meet Arthur Dekuh at the Boston arena next Monday night; and Dekuh out of the way, will have to meet and defeat K. O. Christner, in January; Tom Heeney of Australia in February, and Paulino, in March. These three latter fights are scheduled to take place in Madison Square Garden, New York.

Simultaneously, athletic heads of the University of Southern California, admitted that they were not in harmony with the policies pursued by the present athletic association of the Tournament of Roses, was accused by the Trojan management a year ago of making certain uncompromising remarks about the University of Southern California in addresses before students of other coast institutions. Although Henry has insisted that he was misquoted, the differences never have been adjusted.

CONFERENCE MAY BAN FOOTBALL RADIO

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—Although the matter of business most important to the general public—the arranging of next season's grid plums—is scheduled to be settled tomorrow, coaches and graduate managers of the Pacific Coast conference were slated to bring up several matters of widespread importance today in the preliminary skirmish of the annual conference confab here. Whether football games in 1929 will be broadcast over the radio is one of the major items to come before the organization. This matter came up last year, and although graduate managers frowned on the practice, they failed to veto it. Another important matter to be brought up is the adopting of a plan similar to that in operation in the Big Ten—the selection of a commissioner to name all referees in conference games and settle disputes between the various members.

SANTA ANA 'Y' CAGEMEN BEAT ONTARIO, 30-26

Dividing their point-manufacturing nicely with great improvement and all-around floor play, Coach R. R. Russek's Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. basketball troupe broke into the win column of the Southern California "Y" league by beating Ontario, 30 to 26, here last night. Santa Ana rolled up 16 points in the first half, leaving the floor for the intermission with a five-point advantage. Ontario rolled up 14 points in the last two periods but the Santa Anans had enough left to remain ahead always. Bill Fernandez, forward, inspired the Russick quintet to further offensive measures. He shot seven field goals and was high point man for both sides with 14. Verlin Anderson, tall center, was next best for the home five with three field shots and three free throws. Santa Ana plays another league game here tomorrow night, going against Vic Baden's powerful and undefeated Orange Concoordia club cagers at 8 o'clock. The lineup: Santa Ana (30) (26) Ontario Fernandez (14) F..... (2) Stock Harless (5) F..... (12) Green Anderson (3) C..... (4) Edwards Settle (2) G..... (5) Gushart Stockbridge G..... Clark Substitutions: Santa Ana—Calm for Harless, Bowe for Stockbridge. Ontario—Scott (2) for Stock, Kellogg for Clark.

JIMMIE RIVERS 69 DEER KILLED TO TURN PRO: BY HUNTERS IN S. A. BOUT OFF ORANGE COUNTY

The on-again, off-again boxing match between Jimmie Rivers, Fullerton welter and pride of the Delhi Athletic club, and Zenaydo Chavez, Santa Ana champion and headliner at the Orange County Athletic club, was off-again today, probably for good. Rivers and Chavez had been signed to box the top spot at the O. C. A. C. next Wednesday but arrangements were called off yesterday and it was announced officially from the ringside that the rivals would not meet after all. Unofficially, it was learned that Rivers has decided to turn professional and that shortly after the first of the year he will go to Phoenix, Ariz., to launch his pro career. Rivers has fought main events regularly for Boyd Ellis, promoter of the Delhi club, and in view of recent developments in the local athletic world, Ellis having announced plans for the construction of a new arena which will be operated under the jurisdiction of the California state commission, it is believed that Rivers will be licensed and continue to box under the Ellis banner.

CALLAHAN RETIRES FROM FISTIC WORLD

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Mushy Callahan, world's junior welterweight champion, has retired from the ring, according to word received here by friends of Eddie Sears, manager of Callahan. Sears is in Los Angeles, Callahan's home town. Sears said he had persuaded Callahan to go into business in Los Angeles rather than risk injury in the ring. The boxer's retirement will cost him and Sears something like $40,000, as the result of the cancellation of his proposed bouts with Jimmy McLarnin and Ruby Goldstein here, which had been expected to draw huge gates.

third, after a hard lot of cycling in the second, and punished his man severely. There was no doubt about the decision, of course. The semi-windup lasted quick. Wes McDaniel "subbed" for Nish Negretta and wished that he hadn't because little Tony Moreno, the Placentia terror, poured two stiff rights to the stomach after a minute of the first round and McDaniel was through. Leonard Bennett, a newcomer hereabouts, gave Jesse Ayala a boxing lesson in the feature preliminary and, incidentally, the best bout of the night. Bennett was strong and fast and piled up a big lead in the first two rounds, including a knockdown, and was a decisive winner on points although Ayala, finished with a rush and had an edge in the third. Morrie Nathan found Ned Herman a set-up and knew so much more that he coasted through three frames to get the nod. Norman Lemon and Bob Douglas were called even after three rounds in which Lemon was the best easily. Douglas won the fourth and got the decision. Lemon got the "works." Pat Gomez rallied after a bad start and kicked over Babe Orasco late in the first. A wrestling match between Don Hill and "Rube" Schaffer provoked plenty of excitement. It started when Schaffer picked up Hill and slammed him on the floor. Hill was hurt on the play, but got up, hoisted Schaffer to his shoulders and threw him bodily out of the ring, over the top ropes. Then the riot was on. They took turns at throwing the other out of the place until each had been out three times.

LONG STANDING WORLD RECORD IS IN DANGER

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The world's record of 9.6 seconds for 100-yard dash has stood for 22 years, but the outdoor season of 1929 may see a tenth of a second clipped off the mark if Percy Williams, the Olympic 100 and 200 meter champion, and Frank Wykoff, Glendale, Calif., schoolboy sensation, get together on a lightning fast track.

D. J. Kelly of the United States was the first sprinter to run the century in 9.6 seconds, accomplishing the feat on June 23, 1906. The mark has been equalled seven times, five times by Charley Paddock and once each by H. P. Drew and Cyril Coafee, the Canadian.

Daddock was clocked in 9.5-10 at Los Angeles May 15, 1926, but the International Amateur Athletic federation rejected the application for a world's record.

Wykoff and Williams are two of the fastest sprinters ever developed. Both are young and either of them may crack 9.6-10 seconds in the century before they hang up their spiked shoes.

That Amsterdam Race

Williams beat Wykoff in the 100 meters at Amsterdam, but many track followers believe the decision will be reversed the next time they step on a cinder path and await the "bark" of the starter's gun.

Wykoff finished fourth in the 100 meters at Amsterdam, and Williams won the race in 10.4-5 seconds, slower time than the Californian boy made in winning the final in the Olympic tryouts at Cambridge.

Something was wrong with Wykoff. He was off his feed. The speed he flashed at Cambridge was not in evidence at Amsterdam.

It will be interesting to watch the careers of these two boys on the cinderpath as it is inevitable that they will meet many more times before they retire.

The next meeting may take place at the National outdoor track and field championships at Denver, Colo., July 3, 4 and 5, 1929.

Both Wykoff and Williams will be invited to the meet and a special 100-yard race between them may be arranged as part of the program, or they may meet in the scheduled 100-yard.

Bracey Watched

Another young sprinter who will be watched closely is Claude O. Bracey, the Texas Express, who, like Wykoff, showed more speed at Cambridge than he did at Amsterdam. Bracey is from Rice Institute, Houston, Tex.

At least two veteran sprinters hope to run the century under 9.6-10 before they quit the track. They are Robert McAllister, the flying oop, and De Hart Hubbard.

TILDEN TO GET FINAL DECISION ON PRO STATUS

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—William T. Tilden, who was suspended last August for violation of the player-writer rule, may receive his final verdict on whether he is an amateur at the annual meeting of the executive committee of the U. S. Lawn Tennis association Saturday.

Contrary to rumors, Tilden did not turn professional after his suspension last August and many believe that he will be fully restored to amateur standing at the coming meeting. Tilden was barred from competing as a member of the United States Davis cup team against Italy last summer, but was reinstated for the challenge round against France. On his return to this country, the executive committee ruled that Tilden was ineligible to compete in amateur tournaments.

Tilden applied for reinstatement and when the application came up at the September meeting it was tabled. Tilden has clashed with the U. S. L. T. A. before and come off the victor and it would be no surprise to see him restored to his former status.

McAllister tagged himself "the sprinter of destiny," at Amsterdam, but all his hopes of winning the 100-meter championship crashed when he pulled a tendon in the final heat and finished sixth. The New York policeman believed he was destined to win the race, and that fate played him a cruel trick when his muscles gave way on him. McAllister seems to improve with age, and he may be better next year than he was the past season, which was by far the best in his career.

Hubbard almost ran the 100 in 9.2-10 in a Western conference meet several years ago. He slowed up the last 20 yards and yet finished in 9.6-10 seconds. Hubbard's greatest ambition is to run the century under the world's record before he retires.

COUNTY BEACH PLAYERS BEGIN ON NIGHT BALL

COSTA MESA, Dec. 6.—The Costa Mesa Lions club, playing with an eight man team last night dropped the opening game of the Newport Harbor Winter Night baseball league at the Mesa ball park to the Newport City Employees team. The Lions lost by one run despite the fact that they played the game without the services of a center fielder and were forced to use a second baseman with a broken finger. The final count was 21 to 20.

The game was the first of the league fracas to be played on the Mesa diamond. The Newport Beach Exchange club and the Costa Mesa Lumber company were scheduled to meet Monday night but the game was postponed on account of rain.

The Newport Beach Lumber company and the Costa Mesa Woodmen lodge meet tonight in the second league encounter and the third game of the district meets the Newport Beach Fire Department team. The Newport Harbor Legion post and the Balboa Angling club are also expected to enter teams in the league and will probably start playing next week.

Johnny Wilcutt was on hand for the Lions club with Earl Patterson doing the receiving. K. Siegel did the twirling for the city boys with his brother John Siegel doing his stuff behind the bat.

Braves, was sold to the Cincinnati Reds by Seattle. The sale price was not announced.

Sterling Strycker, former major league pitcher, was transferred from Buffalo to Reading in a straight player deal for "Slicker" Parks.

Another deal sent the veteran Jimmy Zinn, the iron man pitcher, to Cleveland from Kansas City. The latter gets Outfielder George Gerkin, two other players, as yet unnamed, and cash.

Another association club, Toledo, fell heir to Howard Freigau, the infielder. Freigau was transferred from the Boston Braves as part of the deal whereby the Braves acquired Heinie Mueller, outfielder, and Luke Urban, pitcher, last summer from Toledo.

Then the Boston Red Sox and the St. Paul club went into action. The latter sent Alex Gaston, the catcher who once was the property of the Giants and other big league clubs, and Russ Searritt, infielder, to the Red Sox. In return, the latter gave up "Slim" Harris, pitcher, and Infielder Rogell.

Another transaction witnessed the sale of Otis Carter, former outfielder of the Giants, and George Milstead, former Chicago pitcher, from Toledo to Nashville.

The Louisville club finally reported that it had signed a manager, after several days of futile bickering with Bert Niehoff and Nick Allen. The compromise man turned out to be Allan Sotheron, former St. Louis pitcher.

KERR RECRUITS GREAT EASTERN FOOTBALL TEAM

WASHINGTON, Pa., Dec. 6.—Andy Kerr, Washington and Jefferson coach, today announced that eight Eastern gridiron stars, headed by Ken Strong, brilliant New York university halfback, and Howard Harpster, spectacular quarterback of the Carnegie Tech eleven, had accepted invitations to play in the contest between Eastern and Western college stars at the annual benefit game of the Shriner's hospital for crippled children.

Dick Hanley, head coach at Northwestern university is associated with Kerr in the selection of the squad of 22 luminaries to represent the East, and has extended an invitation to prominent athletes of the schools located in the Middle West.

The Eastern stars who will play in addition to Strong and Harpster, are Al Weston, quarterback on the undefeated Boston college eleven; Dick Guest, Lafayette college fullback; John Thompson, of Lafayette, guard; Alex Fox, Pitt, guard, and captain of this year's eleven; Captain Aschman, of Washington and Jefferson, center, and Robert Barabee, of New York university, end.

STANFORD TRIO TO PLAY FOR WEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—A notable football team of Western players was being organized here today to represent this section in the annual East-West game to be played here December 29. Hoffman, Robesky and Sellman, three Stanford stars, will be seen in action with the Western aggregation. It is hoped, too, that "Chuck" Carroll, of Washington, will decide to play with the Westerners.

TEST ASPHALT AS FILLER FOR TREES

Experimental work is under way today on the walnut grove of S. W. Stanley, Tustin, whereby it is hoped to discover the value of asphalt filled with cork as a filler for wounds in the trees.

Farm Advisor Harold Wahlberg has been assisting in the tests. The asphalt is being placed in cavities some of which have been decaying as a result of old pruning methods.

The relative value of asphalt and concrete for this purpose is being estimated. It is hoped that the asphalt will prove superior and will not crack, as concrete sometimes does. Cracking allows moisture to

GIVE YOUR MOTOR A CHANCE to Show How Well It Can Run!

1 Clean out the motor with PAN-AM MOTOR CLEANING MACHINE
This is the first of the three contributions to top-notch motor performance, your Pan American dealer offers. Let him wash out the motor, oil lines and crankcase of your car once a month with the Pan-Am Motor Cleaning Machine. This washes out every particle of muck, grit and metal filings from the crankcase. It also loosens and removes carbon from under piston heads and prevents acids and carbon scum from being carried in suspension through the motor. Unless every bit of this acid laden debris is washed out by this machine it remains to pollute the fresh oil and cause expensive trouble. "Flushing" gets only 32% of it and "draining" even less. Only the Pan-Am Motor Cleaning Machine leaves the crankcase as clean as if washed out by hand. This machine was developed by the Pan American Petroleum Company exclusively for users of Pan-Am Motor Oil. The service is free, you pay only for the cleaning lubricant used which is 100% lubricating oil and not a "cutting agent."

2 Refill with PAN-AM MOTOR OIL
Note the difference in power after you start using Pan-Am Motor Oil in your motor! That's because Pan-Am Motor Oil does more than lubricate moving parts! This finer motor oil prevents loss of power by means of the famous "perfect seal"—that tough film of oil that is constantly maintained between cylinder walls and piston rings! Give your car a chance to show what it can do on a REAL motor oil!

3 Fill up with PAN-GAS THE GREEN SUPER GASOLINE
This remarkable gasoline represents the latest developments in motor fuel. Its "barrel of pep in every gallon" is due to perfected refining, not dope. It is non-poisonous and anti-knock. Pan-Gas gets every ounce of power possible out of your car without subjecting it to undue strains. For quick start on cold mornings—just fill up with Pan-Gas and...

Methods Of Handling Juvenile Cases Hit By Officer

CO-OPERATION NEED TOLD AT BEACH SESSION

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 6.—The big problem facing the modern peace officers is to bring to the public a realization that the officer is working for the good of the public, according to Capt. W. M. "Jack" Cahill, for 19 years one of the leading police officers of Los Angeles. Captain Cahill spoke to members of the Orange County Peace Officers' association at a meeting at the Balboa Palisades club at Corona Del Mar last night.

The Newport Beach police department and city councilmen were hosts to the visiting officers. More than 150 persons were present at the session.

Captain Cahill spoke in the place of Dr. Glen MacWilliams, well known criminologist, who was taken ill with influenza. The necessity of a police officers' confidence in himself, his fellow officers and his department was stressed by Cahill in his address.

Present day methods of handling juveniles were hit by Cahill. He declared that sentencing a boy to a reform school today practically meant the making of a hardened criminal. That much better results could be obtained by the co-operation of the officers throughout the state.

Officers of the county were advised not to dabble in politics by Chief Deputy District Attorney L. W. Blodgett. Blodgett also told of the new police radio which has been perfected and which he said would be of great assistance to officers. The big job of the peace officers is to secure the co-operation of the public in the enforcement of the laws, he stated.

A suggestion that the officers of the association set aside a period of time at each meeting for the discussion of some police problem was made by R. R. Hodgkinson, chief of the Newport Beach department.

The next meeting of the association will be held at St. Ann's Inn, Santa Ana, January 9 at 6:30 p. m. It was announced by Ed French, president. An invitation by Sid Smithwick, of Santa Ana, to hold the meeting there was accepted. Smithwick was named chairman of the entertainment committee for the session, which will be the annual business session of the organization. The meeting was postponed one week as the regular date fell on January 2. Women will be guests at the next meeting and an elaborate program is expected to be presented.

GARDEN GROVE, Dec. 6.—J. Walker of Santa Ana, new Boy Scout executive, will speak on the Boy Scout work at the regular meeting of the Alamitos P-T. A. December 14 at 7:30 o'clock in the Alamitos school. Special music is being planned for the evening.

SAN CLEMENTE

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 6.—Mrs. C. H. Lewis, of St. Maries, Idaho, mother of Mrs. Vera Odell, assistant cashier of the San Clemente bank, is visiting her daughter here. Mrs. Lewis expects to spend the next few months in San Clemente.

Dale King, past president of the Kiwanis club of Fullerton, was a visitor this week. He and his wife were showing Mr. and Mrs. Karl B. Fisher, of Oakland, Southern California.

Mrs. R. E. Clarke, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, and her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Gardner, Seattle, have returned to the Pacific northwest after spending a week here as guests of Mrs. W. W. Watson. Mrs. Watson went to her old home at Sierra Madre last week and brought her friends to visit with her in her home on the ocean front.

San Clemente Kiwanians were well represented at the district session at Fullerton last Monday night. At the meeting were Dan Mulherron, president of the San Clemente Chamber of Commerce; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warner, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hammer, Fritz Hallberg and O. M. Berg.

Kiwanis signs have been posted at each end of the city. Bog Gore, tract manager, placed a sign at the north end. One was also placed at Travaglini's cafe, official meeting place of the club.

Mrs. Hazel Ryan, of Santa Barbara, sister of Mrs. George Scherck, was a visitor for a few days in San Clemente. She spent a few days at the Scherck home visiting her sister and mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cowan. She left on Thursday for home.

The Wierk sisters, Bertha and Emma, arrived in town Thursday from Monrovia. They intend to spend a short time here before returning to Monrovia. They keep two residences but spend most of their time in their San Clemente home on Pasadena row overlooking the Pacific ocean.

NEWPORT CLUB HOLDS ELECTION ON WEDNESDAY

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 6.—Lester L. Isbell was named president of the Exchange club yesterday. Isbell will take office January 2 and will serve six months. The meeting was held at the Newport Beach American Legion hall at Tenth street and the bay front.

Other officers elected included Lew H. Wallace, first vice president; Theodore Robins, second vice president; G. C. Macleod, secretary; Dr. F. C. Ferry, treasurer. The last two officers named were re-elected.

All the directors of the luncheon club were re-elected and Eugene Fenelon, outgoing president of the club, was named as a director to fill a vacancy created on the directorate by the election of Wallace to the vice presidency.

The retiring officers include Eugene Fenelon, president; Lester L. Isbell, first vice president; Paul Ellsworth, second vice president; Macleod, secretary; Dr. F. C. Ferry, treasurer; J. A. Gant, W. L. Jordan, W. A. Leonard, Steve Smith and E. E. Whitson, Lew H. Wallace and George P. Wilson, directors.

Woman Narrowly Escape Serious Injury In Crash

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 6.—Mrs. William C. Meisch narrowly escaped serious injury yesterday when her car rolled over after a crash on Avenida Del Mar. The Meisch car approaching Del Mar from Old Vista, was struck by an auto driven by John W. Bailey, a gardener. The Meisch auto turned over and rolled to the curb. Mrs. Meisch was taken from the car uninjured. Bailey was not hurt.

Police Chief F. J. Eaton arrested both parties on reckless driving charges and the case will be heard before Judge L. G. Nattkemper.

WESTMINSTER C. C. IN MEMBER DRIVE

WESTMINSTER, Dec. 6.—The monthly meeting of the Westminster Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday evening at the library with a good attendance, a number of people from Midway City and Barber City being present.

A play, "The Heavenly Twins," is to be given by Westminster Parent-Teacher association on the evening of December 12 in Odd Fellows hall as a benefit for the library.

A membership drive for the local chamber was planned to begin about the tenth of this month and it was decided to raise the annual membership fee from $1 to $2.

Members of the Westminster baseball club met at Tuesday's business meeting with the chamber members and it was decided by the C. C. to back the club, which is signed up for a weekly game with Los Angeles teams, the games to be played in the ball park at the aviation field.

An executive committee meeting was set for December 13 to perfect plans for backing the local team. Westminster plays the Los Angeles Blues next Sunday afternoon.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH MINISTER ARRIVES

LA HABRA, Dec. 6.—The Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Black and family, of Fellows, have arrived in La Habra. The Rev. Mr. Black is the new pastor of the Christian church. He will teach in the new Christian college now nearing completion in Los Angeles.

LAW AND RADIO EXPLAINED AT SAN CLEMENTE

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 6.—Members of the San Clemente Men's club last night heard a talk on law and one on broadcasting. The legal lecture was given by George Glover, Los Angeles district attorney's office, Long Beach branch. "Smiling" Eddie Marble, announcer and entertainer of K.W.T.C., Santa Ana, KFI, Los Angeles, and KGER, Long Beach, talked on the growth and development of radio. Monty Weeks, entertainer with KFI, KNX and KHJ, Los Angeles, sang several songs.

The largest crowd of many weeks listened to Glover explain the differences between civil and criminal action. Glover explained law procedure, talking of the jurisdiction of municipal, justice and district courts and explained the workings of the grand jury. Marble said that radio is just beginning to find itself. He gave a picture of the growth of broadcasting, explained the technical side of his work and said that no man was able to forecast the future of radio.

Two Cups Won By Terrier Exhibited

ORANGE, Dec. 6.—C. H. Mathews has on exhibition in his store two silver cups won by his Boston terrier as first prizes in a dog show held in Los Angeles recently. The dog, Mathews Honor, has won a number of prizes at dog shows and fairs.

EATON IS WITNESS

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 6.—Police Chief Forest J. Eaton has been called to Los Angeles as a witness in the trial of H. Primo, who is charged with driving a stolen auto. Chief Eaton arrested Primo on August 11. Primo was sentenced by Judge L. G. Nattkemper to a $200 fine and 60 days in jail for possession and transportation of liquor. The Los Angeles authorities then took Primo and filed a stolen car charge against him on Eaton's information and arrest.

Australia has banned the importation of police dogs.

Kellogg Past To Be Discussed By Dean Boyce Dec. 11

GARDEN GROVE, Dec. 6.—The Alamitos brotherhood will meet at the Alamitos church December 11 at 7 o'clock for a pot luck supper. Mr. Boyce, dean of Fullerton Junior college, will speak on "The Kellogg Peace Pact."

The Alamitos Friends church and the Alamitos school are planning a Christmas program for the children, December 19.

GROVE AUXILIARY, LEGION TO ELECT

GARDEN GROVE, Dec. 6.—The American Legion and Auxiliary will meet in their hall this evening at 6:30 o'clock for a pot-luck dinner.

A new commander will be elected at this meeting to take the place of R. B. Baldwin and a new secretary for the Auxiliary to replace Mrs. Baldwin. The Baldwins have moved to Los Angeles.

Westminster Not To Close School

WESTMINSTER, Dec. 6.—It has been decided to continue school at Westminster on the advice of E. F. Beswick, school supervisor, and Mr. Roberts, truant officer. A check of the absent showed 68 of the 300 pupils not present and all were found to be ill at their homes. The greater number were from the Americanization department.

Mrs. Huddleston, kindergarten teacher, who was ill with influenza, is back in school this week.

HOME ENTERED

WESTMINSTER, Dec. 6.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. P. Heil was entered yesterday afternoon, while the family was away for a short time. The intruder, who was accompanied by a dog, gained entrance through a window and went through every room and closet in the house, as was shown by the muddy tracks on the floors. So far as could be discovered nothing was missing.

The tracks of the intruder were those of a boy.

MEN'S SHOP AT SAN CLEMENTE IS PURCHASED

SAN CLEMENTE, Dec. 6.—The San Clemente Men's shop has been sold to Timothy W. Cleugh, of Covina. The announcement of sale was made by H. H. Cavin, cashier of the San Clemente bank. Cavin, appointed receiver upon application of Mrs. L. D. Bellows, of Los Angeles, when she was party to a divorce action, said that the deal has been closed to the satisfaction of all parties and that Cleugh would move stock worth $6000 from his store at Baldwin Park to the Spanish Village. He expects to open his shop in the San Clemente hotel early next week.

The shop was opened for business in February of last year and was run by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bellows until that couple started divorce proceedings in June. After the divorce Mrs. Maude Hauser continued at the store working under the direction of the receiver.

Influenza Epidemic Waning, Dr. Sutherland Believes

97 DEATHS IN COUNTY CAUSE $650,000 LOSS

Based on the assumption that $5000 is the average valuation of human life, Orange county last year suffered a monetary loss of $650,000 through the 97 deaths from tuberculosis that occurred during that period, according to figures compiled by the Orange County Tuberculosis association.

Commenting on the number of deaths, Dr. H. K. Sutherland, county health officer, said that still more serious is the situation of possible contact with the 1000 or 1500 tubercular cases existing in the county at present. A conservative estimate, he says, would indicate at least 16,000 close contacts, one-third of whom are children.

That California, because of its enviable climate and healthful environment, pays the penalty of facing a higher tuberculosis death rate than prevails in many other states, is pointed out by Dr. Walter M. Dickie, director of the state board of public health.

About seven per cent of all tuberculosis deaths occurring in California are individuals who have resided in the state less than one year, and 27 per cent of tuberculosis deaths are of persons who have resided in California from one to four years, statistics reveal.

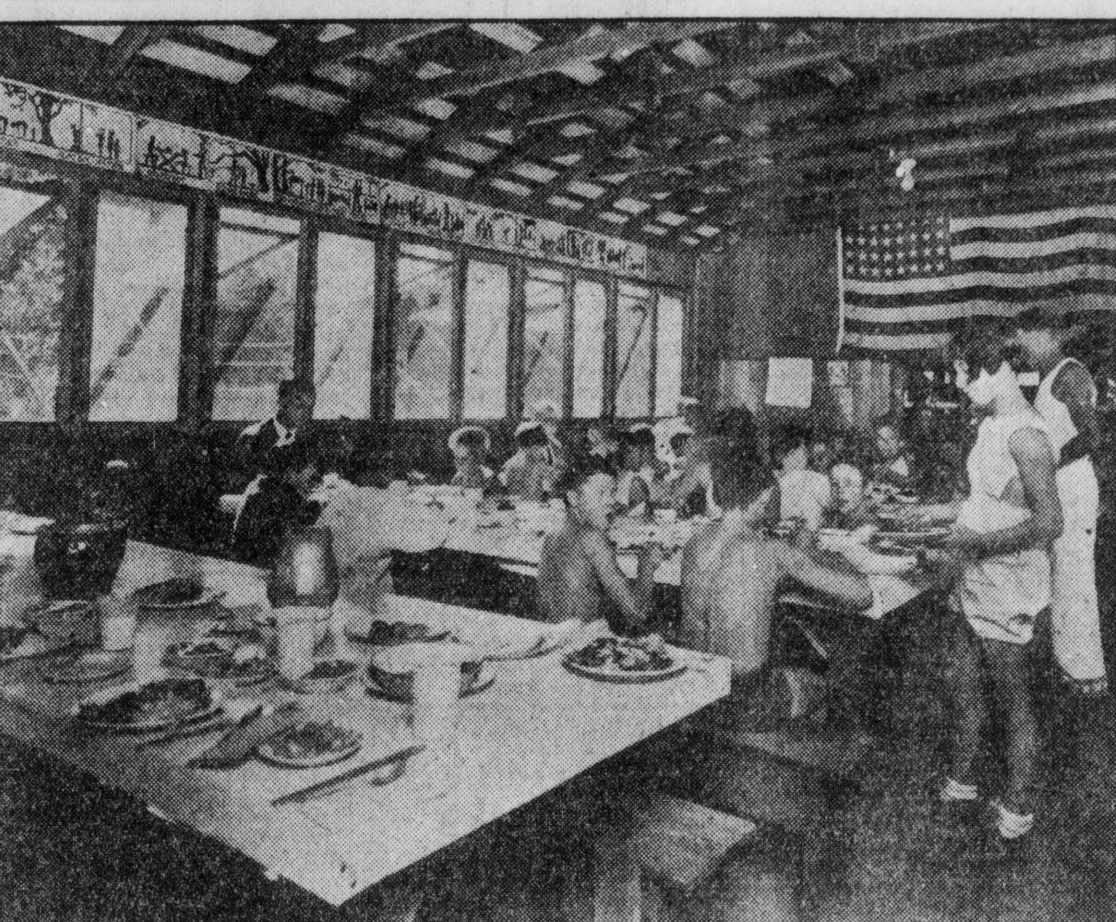

It is pointed out that it is customary for physicians in many other states to send patients to the Pacific southwest, even when their cases are in an advanced stage. In 1927 there were 6000 deaths in California from tuberculosis, Dr. Dickie cites.

"This represents a huge loss from a monetary standpoint, for most deaths from this disease occur at the most productive period of life," Dr. Dickie said. "Using $5000 as the average valuation of human life, we would have a total loss of $30,000,000 from tuberculosis last year."

President Roosevelt's conservation commission, in 1909, stated that tuberculosis is 75 per cent preventable. Tuberculosis in California last year caused an economic loss of $22,500,000 as Dr. Dickie figures it out.

FARM CENTERS SEEK RECORD IN MEMBER DRIVE

The Cypress Farm center has held its annual election of officers and today, with the annual farm bureau membership drive under way the Cypress organization, under its new administration, is making a determined thrust toward setting a record for gaining new members.

C. L. Barnett was elected chairman of the farm center at a meeting held Tuesday night. O. P. Bunyard was chosen vice chairman. A. Gaunt was made secretary and Joseph Ritter was selected as director for Cypress on the farm bureau board.

Under the leadership of C. A. Jones, Cypress banker, the membership campaign there is away to a vigorous start and it appeared today that Cypress and Villa Park centers are to be rivals in the race for first honors. Garden Grove, which last year won first place for making the largest membership gain, is in the race in earnest and 30 persons are reported to be working in the campaign there.

Cypress is planning to organize a 4-H agricultural club among the school children of that district and the Savanna school area. Farm center leaders are co-operating with Eric Eastman, assistant farm advisor and club director, in the project.

ELABORATE PROGRAM PLANNED FOR SANTA ANA HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM BY BAND LEADER

By RUTH ANDREWS

Announcement was made this morning by D. C. Cianfoni, director of the Santa Ana Municipal band, of interesting details concerning the elaborate Christmas concert program to be presented free to the public in Santa Ana high school auditorium, Thursday evening, December 13, by the local organization, under his direction.

The carefully arranged holiday effects making it a popular favorite. Another selection of comic nature will be Muscat's "The Jolly Musicians."

The "Newport Harbor March," one of Cianfoni's most recent compositions, publicly presented by him to the city of Newport Beach within the past month, and considered by him one of his best marches, will have its initial local hearing on this holiday program. A collection of Christmas songs, "Beneath the Holly," arranged for band by Lester Brockton, will include the following Christmas favorites: "Tomorrow Will Be Christmas," "Cantique de Noel," "Adeste Fideles," "O Sanctissima," "O Come Little Children," "Sacred Night, Holy Night," "The Sacred Pine."

The Treble Clef club, composed of approximately 100 of Santa Ana's best female voices, will be appropriately gowned in satin evening gowns in contrasting pastel shades, and will form a vividly picturesque background for the Band, who with addition of chimes, will accompany the singers in "The Infant Jesus" (Pietro Yon), and "The Birth of a King" (W. N. Neidlinger).

All Treble Clef members are urged to be present at the dress rehearsal for the concert, to be held together with band members, at the First M. E. Church next Monday evening, Dec. 10, at 7:30 p. m.

E. C. McFADDEN, ATTACK VICTIM, BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for E. C. McFadden, 33, of Hynes, were held in Bellflower today, with interment in Fairhaven cemetery, Santa Ana.

George McGee, of Downey, is being held in jail, while Los Angeles county officers investigate the fatal attack. McFadden was found at the rear of his home several hours after he had been attacked. He died in a Long Beach hospital several days later.

The attack occurred at the rear of a Clearwater cafe.

He is survived by his widow and four children; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McFadden, of Costa Mesa; a sister, Ellen, and a brother, Raymond, also of Costa Mesa.

The McFadden family lived in La Habra many years ago, E. C. McFadden being born there.

SCHOOLS HERE WILL REOPEN NEXT MONDAY

Simultaneously with a definite announcement from the board of education offices that the Santa Ana schools will resume activity next Monday, Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer, stated today that the peak of the influenza epidemic in this section seems to have passed and that the force of the disease has been broken.

Until 10 a. m., today, only 31 cases throughout the county had been reported for the last 24 hours, Dr. Sutherland said. It was recalled that but 69 were announced yesterday and both figures represent a huge decrease in the number of reports.

Santa Ana schools, which have been closed since Thanksgiving day as a result of a seriously decreased attendance, which was causing a loss in school income, were scheduled to resume operation on Monday and the definite announcement of reopening was received as an added indication that the epidemic has spent its force.

Although the danger period seems to have passed, Dr. Sutherland pointed out that probably scattered cases of influenza will occur for the next two or three weeks in Orange county and indicated that care exercised by residents of the county to prevent a spread of the malady during the last few weeks should not be relaxed.

Today's report showed 13 cases from Fullerton, three from Santa Ana, two from Brea, three from Anaheim, four from Orange and one from Olive.

POSTPONE BAZAAR

NEWPORT BEACH, Dec. 6.—The Christmas bazaar scheduled for the Balboa Community church chapel today has been postponed until December 13 and 14. It was reported today by Mrs. Eva DeKay, president of the Aid society of the church, who is in charge of the affair. The bazaar was postponed on account of the many cases of influenza in the district.

ACQUIT WOMAN ON BAD CHECK CHARGE

Mrs. George Shifflett, of Long Beach, was found not guilty of issuing a bank check with intent to defraud, when a jury returned its verdict late Tuesday in Superior Judge James L. Allen's court.

The check is said to have been drawn for $150 on the First National bank, of Orange. Trial of the case began yesterday and the jury returned its verdict after approximately two hours of deliberation.

The defense claimed that Shifflett had ordered his wife to leave their home and that she had checked on their joint account but that in the meantime he had closed the account.

SPEEDER TO SPEND FIVE DAYS IN JAIL

Merritt J. Thompson, Santa Ana, who was arrested November 27 on a charge of driving his automobile 60 miles an hour on North Main street, which is a 20-mile zone, was sentenced to spend five days in the county jail by Judge J. F. Talbott yesterday.

Thompson was arrested by City Motorcycle Officer Ed Lentz. December 13 was the time set by the judge for Thompson to start his jail sentence.

Weddings
HouseholdBazaar and Dinner at Church of Messiah Enjoyable

Tall baskets of red-berried cotoneaster and graceful poinsettias added to the friendly charm of the parish room at the Church of the Messiah yesterday afternoon and evening when members of the Woman's guild held their annual Christmas bazaar and dinner. A Christmas tree, glittering with gay ornaments, added the final note to the holiday atmosphere.

Those who were in charge of the booths where many lovely articles were sold throughout the affair, included Mrs. James L. Allen, Mrs. C. S. Dunphy, Mrs. James Farrage, Mrs. Oliver Remsburg, and members of St. Elizabeth's guild.

In connection with the afternoon's bazaar, a delightful musical program was presented during the tea hour. It included songs arranged by Mrs. W. J. Hatter and Miss Mabel Krause, church organist, and those presenting the numbers were pupils of Miss Krause.

Duncan Harnois, June Licht and Lewis Riehl gave piano selections, while Betty Lou Hannaford sang. A special feature of the program was the series of Christmas carols given by a chorus made up of Sunday school pupils. Miss Krause accompanied at the piano.

Tea was served by Mrs. W. V. Brady and Mrs. K. H. Colley. In the evening, a delicious turkey dinner was served at tables which had been decorated with cotoneaster and poinsettias.

Several young girls of the church, Miss Ruth Ann Walker, Miss Betty Bondley, Miss Gertrude Chapman, Miss Katherine Chapman, Miss Virginia Bishop, Miss Lorraine Farrage and Miss Edith Bailey served, under the direction of Mrs. L. C. Tuma.

Mrs. W. H. Haddon was chairman of the kitchen committee.

A great deal of merriment was caused later in the evening by the auctioning of packages, the contents of which were unknown, by Frank Lansdowne.

A table containing articles which had been donated by men of the parish was presided over by Charles G. Twist.

Corona Man Claims Local Girl For Bride

Santa Ana friends of Miss Doris Ashman, daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Ashman of 119 Grand avenue, will be interested in the news of her marriage Tuesday to Lloyd DeWitt of Corona.

The wedding took place at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church in Corona with the Rev. Ray Willing Smith officiating.

The bride was very pretty in a simple little frock of dark blue with accessories to match. She was unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt plan to make their home in Corona where Mr. DeWitt is a rancher.

Mrs. DeWitt is a graduate of the Tustin high school and of a local business college. She is a sister of George Ashman who is employed in the pressroom of the Santa Ana Register.

MILITARY BALL AT ST. ANN'S OUTSTANDING EVENT OF YEAR

Memories of some of the gay and brilliant social affairs with which the dark days of the World War were occasionally relieved, were revived last night, when men in uniform and men in mufti, met and mingled with the loveliest of Santa Ana's womanhood in a brilliant ball at St. Ann's Inn, where the first of the annual military balls of the Disabled American Veterans' association, was presented. The function was the realization of dreams and hopes of the Disabled Veterans who have been working for its success during the past several months under the direction of Jack Fisher, commander of the Orange county post.

Adding to the interest of the affair was the presence of a number of guests, all of them well known in military circles throughout the United States. They included General Van Deeman of San Diego, Colonel Didot, French consul at Los Angeles, and Madame Didot, Capt. Arthur St. Remie of Los Angeles, Lt. G. Williams of Los Angeles, Lt. Com. Irwin F. Landis and Mrs. Landis of Santa Ana, and Harry Clark, mayor of San Diego.

During the evening this group of guests was introduced by William Murphy of this city, state commander of the Disabled Veterans, who was introduced in turn by Commander Fisher. Included in Commander Fisher's short talk was a brief outline of the organization of which he is county commander. He also told of the use to which proceeds from the dance will be put.

An especially striking feature of the evening's entertainment was the sounding of taps by the American Legion Pipe and Drum corps.

Another entertainment number was the singing of several songs, appropriate to the occasion, by the American Legion auxiliary glee club under the direction of Cecil Fross Willis.

Ivan Edwards of Los Angeles, well known operatic tenor, who is a brother of Harry Edwards, service officer and state adjutant of the Disabled Veterans' association, was present at the dance and he sang several lovely songs.

A fascinating Spanish dance was given early in the evening by the dancing team, Manuel and Nita.

Completing the brilliant picture of women in colorful evening dress and representatives from foreign nations in formal dress were the massed colors of the Spanish War Veterans, American Legion, Forty and Eight, and the Disabled Veterans. Many American flags were used to carry out the military motif.

The committee which assisted Commander Fisher in arrangements for the dance included Mrs. Fannie Reeves, first president of the Legion auxiliary; Mrs. F. E. Coulter, president of the Santa Ana Eboli society; Mrs. A. G. Flagg, W. B. Williams, former Su-Perior Judge F. C. Drumm, Charles Van Wyk, past commander of the local post, American Legion, and Lynn Crawford.

A complete list of patrons and patronesses included Mayor and Mrs. Frank Purinton, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Metzgar, Mr. and Mrs. Dan E. Maloney, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Santa Claus Pays Visit
To Small Girl on Birthday

That jolly old elf of Christmas, Santa Claus, who generally does not appear in public until December 25, made a special concession to little Miss Eleanor Frances Hedley, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hedley of 1730 West Sixth street, yesterday afternoon because the occasion was her fifth birthday anniversary and he appeared at her birthday party for a short visit.

Of course the presence of a gaily decorated Christmas tree which seemed to yearn for pretty packages to be placed at its foot might have worked on Santa's sympathy but the young honoree, Miss Eleanor Frances, is sure that it was all on account of her birthday that the loved saint came to the party.

Following Santa Claus' visit and the distribution of gifts to the children, Mrs. Hedley, assisted by her sister, Mrs. H. Antisdel, arranged tables in the dining room for the serving of refreshments which consisted of a birthday cake topped with five red candles and ice cream.

Informal Bridge Party Follows Dinner at Church

An informal little affair of last evening which was specially charming was the bridge party at the W. L. Deimling home on North Broadway when a group of the guests at the Christmas dinner at the Church of the Messiah gathered afterwards for a few games of bridge.

When scores were added at the end of the evening it was found that Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haddon were high and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Diehl were low. The prize winners were presented with attractive gifts.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Deimling were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. DeWolfe, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Luhr, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Chenoweth, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Maloney, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Maloney, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Diehl, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haddon, and Wilson Murdoch.

SAD FISH STORY

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Thirty entrants in the Braintree, Essex, angling festival fished vainly for four hours and then gave up. As no one caught a fish, the medals and cups, offered as prizes, were packed away until next year. The last festival held saw the winning of two cups and a medal by an angler who caught one fish of less than eight ounces.

DEPENDENT BRITAIN
LONDON, Dec. 6.—The British Isles, civilization's center, are dependent on the rest of the world for most necessities. Only one food, fish, is not imported. Not more than 20 per cent of the wheat and oats consumed is grown on the islands.

Plans For Christmas Concert Move Apace

Plans for the Christmas program which is to be presented on the night of December 13 at the Santa Ana high school by the Treble Clef club and the Santa Ana Symphony orchestra are moving apace.

At the latest meeting of the club the lovely selections which are being arranged for the concert were practiced under the direction of Frances Hunt Beeson as Margherita Marsden, director, was unable to be present.

There are 100 members of the club, all of whom are well known in this city for their abilities to sing so that the concert is expected to be one of the outstanding musical events of the season.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Santa Ana Country club members will enjoy the monthly bridge and luncheon at the club tomorrow afternoon. Members who are planning to be present at the affair are requested to make reservations not later than tomorrow morning. Those who do not wish to come for luncheon may make reservations for bridge at 2 o'clock.

Fifth Household Economics section of Santa Ana Eboli society will hold a Christmas dinner for the husbands of members Tuesday night, 6:30 o'clock, at the clubhouse. There will be a gift exchange. Those planning to attend the affair are requested to notify Mrs. Severin Schulte at 3070.

John Muir P.-T. A. will not meet Tuesday afternoon as was previously announced. The date of the next meeting will be announced as soon as possible.

Outsmarting the Lowly Onion Being but a humble Cooking Columnist, I look with awe on the mighty minds that ramble along in their inspired discourses on the foibles of lesser fry. But sometimes I read their comments with the rudest of chortles: listen to this one (and he actually gets paid for it)!

"I admire the lowly onion, but I do not think that the knife with which is sliced the lowly onion should, without intermediary treatment, be used for buttering bread. However, I suppose it is somewhat presumptuous in me to offer a household hint and I shall not argue the matter."

Certainly the gentleman should not design to argue the subject of the lowly onion after all those gorgeous words—but it took an enterprising female to send in the prize-package for the day anent the selling of the knife blade with onion: Her suggestion to use a LEMON SQUEEZER when getting juice out of an onion won the dollar, and I am quite sure that with five minutes to go and another dollar as prize her fertile mind could devise a way around the distinguished Columnist's weighty problem.

TODAY'S RECIPE
CHOCOLATE-NUT CREAM COOKIES

1 egg, well beaten

1 cup brown sugar

1 square melted chocolate

1-2 cup nut meats, diced

3-4 cup sour cream

2 cups flour

1-2 teaspoons baking powder

3-8 teaspoon soda

1-2 teaspoon salt

If you prefer the square of chocolate may be represented by 3 tablespoonsful of powdered chocolate, and should you not like chocolate at all it could be left out and 1-4 cup of sultana raisins used to replace it.

Beat the egg well, add to it the melted chocolate and sugar, and cream smooth. Beat in the thick sour cream, then—

Sift and measure the flour; add the baking powder and soda and sift twice again. Mix smoothly with the sugar-cream mixture and add the diced nut meats—these may be walnuts, pecans, cashews or even blanched peanuts.

Heat the oven to 350 degrees F. (moderate oven), drop the cookie batter by spoonfuls on buttered tins and bake for 15 minutes.

To make these serve for a party make a mocha frosting out of a little butter creamed with powdered sugar, a little strong coffee, and enough more powdered sugar to make thick enough. A dab on the top of each cookie does wonders for it.

Just 2600 very active energy calories will be found in this cookie recipe. Count the cookies and divide their total to get the individual value. It will be about 100, I am sure.

These are splendid to put into the school lunches or for the snack small boys and girls expect when they get home from school.

Traveler In Africa
Quite Well-known
In This City

The many warm friends made by Mrs. John Fletcher of San Francisco, on the frequent occasions of her visits here with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Chenoweth, will be interested in hearing of her return from an eight months' stay in Africa.

Mr. and Mrs. Chenoweth are anticipating a holiday visit in San Francisco, when they may hear some of their sister's remarkable adventures. As her friends here were aware, the trip was one which she had planned for many months, and was undertaken partly for the sheer love of adventure, and partly for lecture and book material. Traveling by safari, Mrs. Fletcher circled the continent, and traversed fully three-fourths of it, starting at Capetown, and finally leaving on her homeward trip, by the Red Sea.

Needless to say, accounts of her adventures are eagerly awaited by her friends.

Mrs. E. D. Caskey's home at 1535 East First street was the scene of a merry Christmas party, of the southeast section of the Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church Wednesday.

After the regular business session Miss Marion Pletke gave two readings, "Ma and Her Check Book," and "Grandma."

Then followed various Christmas games, and a gift exchange, which was greatly enjoyed.

The committee consisting of Miss Lillian Craig, Mrs. L. B. Pearl, Mrs. D. Miller and Mrs. E. F. Gaeb served refreshments in keeping with the holiday season.

First M. E. Women who have identified themselves with the First Methodist Episcopal church during the year, will be complimented in January, at an afternoon reception to be given by Mrs. G. E. Bruns, Mrs. W. D. Baker and Miss Blanche Collins, according to plans made at the latest meeting of the north section of the M. E. Aid society.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Woman's Society

The Woman's society of the First Baptist church met for its all-day meeting Wednesday. The morning was spent in making quilts, in White Cross work and in making candy bags for use at Christmas time.

At noon, luncheon was served in the dining room. As this was a Peace luncheon the decorations were white flowers with green background and two white doves were placed in the front of the room.

The business session was presided over by the president, Miss Gertrude Minor. The Society voted to give $50 for the annual Christmas gift to missions.

Mrs. H. E. Wheeler conducted the devotion, her subject being, "The Stewardship of Money."

A violin trio composed of Emma Richards, Helen Slabaugh and Rose Marie Smith with Miss Marie Havens at the piano gave a group of Christmas carols.

Mrs. W. W. Crozier introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Earl E. Smith of Anaheim, chairman of the department of international relations for Orange county. Mrs. Smith gave an interesting talk on "Peace."

Mrs. Blanch Owens concluded the program with a song, "The Birthday of a King."

YOUR CHILDREN

by Olive Roberts Barton ©1928 by NEA Service, Inc.

Too much cannot be said about the danger of fire at this time of year. This goes for older people as well as for children, but children must be guarded particularly because they don't understand the necessity for care and depend on us to keep them safe.

The old-fashioned rubber-hose gas connection is not obsolete by any means although it should be. Cities and states should legislate against it and make its use a criminal offense.

If by any chance you happen to have one, never go to bed under any circumstances with it turned on. And be sure that the gas is turned off as well as the stop-cock on the floor where the hose is attached.

The key at the stove-end is not enough. The force of the gas is quite strong enough to push the rubber-hose loose from its connection and a stream of raw gas is released into the room which will cause death from asphyxiation in a very few minutes, if not an explosion.

No gas stove should be used either day or night that does not have a flue connection of some sort to carry off the fumes of burned gas to the outside air.

Don't think that you will be warned by odors, and that it will be time enough to look to the safety of the family. Sometimes there is a warning odor but more often there is not. Carbon monoxide has no odor and death from it is sudden and sure.

The only safe gas stove is one with a lead or iron pipe connection, and a flue to carry off poisonous burned gases.

But to go back to fire, probably one of the chief sources of danger is the fleecy nightgowns and sleeping garments that little folk wear in winter.

Canton flannel, outing flannel, flannelette, and all the soft knitted fabrics that are so comfortable and warm, have fuzzy surfaces that ignite like a flash.

Children need these warm nightgowns. I should not change them. But I should see that every open grate and stove in the house was protected by a fire screen that could not be knocked over.

See that the keys to all grates and stoves are put beyond reach or, if they are stationary, that they are not too easily turned. A cat or a dog can easily set a house on fire by stepping on a gas key. Board floors should be protected by zinc squares and stoves near walls should have asbestos board behind them.

Look out for leaks. Stoves rust over summer, and so do pipes. A lot of things can go wrong.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN — PICTURES BY KNICK

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

With all the Tinsies on the sled, the Eskimo, in low voice, said, "Now please be careful with my dogs, and treat them very kind. They'll take you safely, have no fear, to Toyland. It's not far from here. 'Twill be a dandy ride because your path will wind and wind."

"Oh, thank you, sir," one Tiny cried. "We know we will enjoy this ride, and don't you worry about your dogs. We'll keep them safe from harm." And then they heard the queer man say, "All right then, Tinsies! On your way!" The dogs barked loud and started, as the Eskimo waved his arm.

Across the ice and snow they sped. It surely was a dandy sled. The Tinsies clung together, in the fear that they would fall. "These dogs," said Clowny, "sure are strong. They travel swiftly right along, despite the very heavy load that they are forced to haul."

"I only wish we had some meat so we could give them food to eat. This running fast I'm sure will give them quite an appetite." "Oh, don't you worry," Coppy said. "No doubt they've been nicely fed."

As long as we hang on I'm sure that all will be all right."

In half an hour they reached a hill, and climbing it was quite a thrill. At first the Tinsies thought the dogs would never reach the top. But, on they went, real sure, but slow, till at the peak of all the snow. Then down they traveled. Carpy cried, "Oh, now we'll never stop."

"Oh, my Oh, me! Just look ahead," one of the Tinsies jumped and said. "We've reached our destination. This adventure will be fine. There's Santa's Toyland. Hip, hurrah! That's where we're going to stop and play." And sure enough, it read, "Toyland" upon a great big sign.

(Jack Frost greets the Tinsies in the next story.)

EAT THE THEATER

WEST END

Tim McCoy, hero of thrilling Western drama, at the West End theater in a new style of role, when he drops the characters of the west to play an Australian Robin Hood in "The Bushranger," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's vivid romance of the Australian plains.

With boomerang and bullwhip McCoy battles his way through a thrilling series of adventures incidental to a charming love story. Marian Douglas, herself an Australian, plays the heroine, and a notable cast includes Russell Simpson, Arthur Lubin, Dale Austen ("Miss New Zealand"), Edwin Brady and others of note. Chester Withey, noted as the director of many western adventure stories, directed the new play.

McCoy, in the role of an Australian bushranger, uses for his weapons the Australian whip, with which he performs many feats, such as disarming and tying a man at long range, and the boomerang, which he hurls as a weapon and with which he makes a sensational escape from pursuing troopers.

The western star was trained in the use of these weapons by Frank Baker, a brother of the famous "Snowy" Baker, Australian sportsman. The picture is the first all-Australian picture ever filmed in America.

YOST BROADWAY

Gertrude Astor has done more to save scores of productions from inferiority than any other star in Hollywood. She is the "relief pitcher" who has to take the roles that promise little reward except the actuality of a good job well done.

In spite of this, there is little doubt but that she is one of the most demanded stars in the colony. By now, producers know what she can do, and any part that can, by any stretch of imagination, be called suitable for her is offered to her before anyone else is approached.

In "Hit of the Show" she has the role of a would-be tough boarding-house-keeper who keeps the house where the hero and heroine are living. As usual she manages to make her role one of the most outstanding ones, and acts as a wonderful foil to the dainty Miss Olmstead.

Other pictures in which she has had excellent roles are "Shanghai" and "Stocks and Blondes." In both of these pictures she gave a performance utterly unlike anything she had attempted before.

Other members of the cast include Joe E. Brown, Lee Shumway, LeRoy Mason, Daphne Pollard, Irene Holmes and William Norton Bailey. The picture was adapted from a story by Viola Brothers Shore and was directed by Ralph Ince.

WEST COAST-WALKER

Enthusiastic throngs are acclaiming Al Jolson's second picture, "The Singing Fool," as the greatest of all the vehicles which the world's most famous entertainer, has had in his spectacular career.

In "The Singing Fool" he plays the part of a waiter in a Broadway cabaret—a song writer who helps the woman he loves to a place as a revue star and marries her only to be left with a small son, when the faithless woman deserts him for a richer man.

"The Singing Fool" is a heart story providing a thousand opportunities for Jolson to display his genius for moving us all to tears or laughter. He has some marvelous new songs, and does not forget some of the unforgettable old ones.

His speaking voice, too, is perfectly attuned to the medium of sound, and he has an all-star supporting cast which includes Betty Bronson, Josephine Dunn, Reed Howes, Ed Martindale, Arthur Housman, David Lee and Robert Emmett O'Connor. Leslie S. Barrows did the story which was scenarized by C. Graham Baker and directed by Lloyd Bacon.

Over the Top
Lathrop made a splendid record in the Community Chest drive conducted during the past week. With Miss Lella Thrasher as chairman, a committee of Low nine students, Norma Thatcher, Ruth Dunn, Olive Hatch, Louis Rogers, Aileen Buck, John McFarland and Evelyn Griset, submitted to the student body plans for the drive. The goal was set at $100 which was to be raised by Friday, the last day of the drive. As usual, the splendid spirit which Lathrop shows on all such appeals carried her over the top with a surplus of $14.79, making a total for the student body, $114.79. With contributions from the teachers and janitors, Lathrop's total was $452.79.

Physical Education
The Physical Education classes under the instruction of Miss Collins have divided into squads for the purpose of practicing basketball during the P. E. period.

Each squad has chosen a squad leader, a name and a color. These squads will challenge each other to practice games. After instruction in basketball fundamentals, class teams will be chosen during December. During favorable weather inter-class practice will be held during the noon period and after school.

Christmas Work
The I. X. L. and Every Girls' clubs at Lathrop have appointed their committees for the annual Christmas work done by these organizations.

The Low Nine business training classes are planning to visit the local telephone exchange during the first week after the holidays.

This visit will be made in connection with the study of telephone system and how to use them.

Assembly
At a splendid assembly on Wednesday at the Spirit of Thanksgiving was cleverly depicted by Miss Nicholson's Low seventh, Miss eighth and High eighth classes. The story of the Pilgrims' coming included a very interesting scene of the religious service for which they had come to America. The first Thanksgiving followed with the Indians as unexpected guests. A finale including representatives from all the wars in which America has engaged for liberty and freedom. It was a good performance and much credit is due to students and Miss Nicholson who were handicapped by many absences.

The High Nine girls of Miss Foster's sewing class have just finished their pajamas and are starting their wash-dresses. Some of the best made pajamas are on exhibit in the show case. Of the 70 high nine girls who were permitted to choose their material for their dresses, no two materials were selected alike; however most of the dresses were of print. Through the simplicity of both material and pattern the girls showed wise judgment. We hope to have as good success with our pajamas and even better.

Along with the construction work, we are taking up the theory side of sewing. So far we have studied the "planning and making of the dress." The next problem is the "care of the dress."

ROOSEVELT

Miss Wherry, the writing supervisor, gave all of the grades from the third to the sixth a spelling test on November 14. In the fourth grade, those who received the highest grades in the class were given the best seats in the room.

—Frances McWaters.

Birds

All the grades of Roosevelt school are studying birds. The study is interesting. A bird record was played on the phonograph. Pictures of the birds were shown while their songs were whistled on the Victrola. Mrs. Kellogg, the upper grade nature study teacher, is offering a prize for the best snapshot taken of a wild bird.

—Lenore McFarren.

Thanksgiving

In Miss Walker's room the fifth, high sixth, and low sixth grades have been making pictures to represent the first Thanksgiving. Some children drew the outside of the cabin, some drew turkeys and a few made the interior of the cabin. They drew the pictures one day, and the next day colored them. There were some very pretty ones.

—Clarice Miller.

Safety

The safety committee held a meeting Thursday, November 22. It was interesting. The president made a speech and then the committee answered questions. The president read the safety bulletin.

—Harry Birdsall.

Chest

The Roosevelt school's community chest total was $72.12. Miss Lindsay's room, the low fifth grade, was the only one which had 100 per cent. Each child who gave received a little red feather. Nearly everybody in the school gave something.

—Josephine Keeler.

Ball

A ball game was played on Artesia's grounds between the girls' teams of Roosevelt and Artesia schools, Monday. Artesia won. The score was nine to one. It was the last game to be held this year.

—Gloria Mawson.

The basketball boys are practicing for their games. Their teams are called the Tigers and the Wildcats. They will not play until December 10 on account of the schools closing. The girls are through playing basketball. They will soon start their practicing for basketball too.

—Avo Stovall.

School Closed

Wednesday, Miss Wells, the principal, sent word that the school will be closed from November 29 until December 10, on account of the influenza.

—Julienne Wolven.

DOESN'T SEEM FAIR

Oklahoma City in the Western league had the highest percentage of games won and lost for the entire season but didn't win the pennant. The league played a split season and Oklahoma City won the first half but not the second and was defeated in the playoff series by Tulsa.

—OFF FOR HONOLULU

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Headed by Coach Fred Dawson, 20 members of the Denver football team will leave here today for Honolulu where the squad will clash with the University of Hawaii team in the latter part of the month.

Reorganization of the Fokker Aircraft Corporation has been recently effected by James A. Talbot, President of the Richfield Oil Co., and his associates, who are said to own a large block of the stock. Newspapers report the company to build a $4,000,000 plant in Los Angeles. This stock should materially advance, in our opinion. We recommend that you

L. A. PRODUCE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—(UP)—Trading was slow on the Los Angeles market today, and some lines showed a weaker tendency.
Apples continued steady. Belflowers, jobbing at $2.00 to $2.25 per cwt. Newtowns brought mostly $2.00 to $2.25, with a little 2 1/2-tier fruit at $2.00. Idaho Jonathans held steady at $1.60 to $1.65 a bushel basket, with loose stock at 40c to 45c a pound, and loose Delicious at 45c to 50c.

Local avocados were in light supply and firm at 18c to 20c a pound for Fuenlos, with Puertes at 25c to 30c. Kentucky Wonder beans from San Diego county were weaker at 10c to 12c a pound, with local limas at 9c to 11c.

Imperial Valley cucumbers were lower because of deteriorating quality, with the best stock at $1.50 to $1.75 a lug and poorer stock at $1.00 to $1.25.

Grapefruit continued to hold steady at $4.25 to $4.50 a box for best Imperial Valley stock, 80 size, with Rioja at $3.75 to $4.00 and choice 80s at $3.75 to $4.00.

Local Spanish onions held steady at $2.75 to $3.00 per cwt. on the street. Oranges were in heavy supply and moving slowly, fancy packed stock jobbing at $5.75 to $5.25 a box according to size.
Peas from the Imperial Valley showed a wide range in quality, with fair quality stock at 20c to 30c. Potatoes showed a slightly firmer tendency, but prices were unchanged. Sweet potatoes from the sales of Stockton Burbanks were reported at $1.25 to $1.50 per cwt. with ordinary stock at $1.00 to $1.15. Idaho Russets were steady at mostly $1.30 per cwt. with an occasional car of large stock as high as $1.40. Red Bliss corn cobs were steady at $1.75 to $2.25 a lug, with poorer stock at 75c to $1.50.

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—(UP)—Call money advanced to 12 per cent. The highest rate in more than eight years. This fact aided a reaction on the stock market, which began to show signs of recovery in the early afternoon. Renewals of call loans had been arranged at 9 per cent and supplies in early trading appeared adequate to prevent further stringency.

The rate rose to 11 per cent shortly before 2 p. m. and a few minutes later it advanced to 12 per cent. Back in 1929 rates were around the 10 per cent level for several months. Early in the year hitting 25 per cent. Since that time, however, a 5 or 7 per cent rate was high.

On the rise to 12 per cent selling gathered momentum.
U. S. Steel broke sharply and recent speculative favorites like Chrysler, Packard, Anaconda, Radio and General Motors were sold off rapidly, unsettling the entire market.

Dealings had been on a quiet scale in early trading, but the market picked up in volume, the steel fell behind and business was heavier than yesterday.

On the broad, tremendous support was encountered in the principal stocks, much of it being touched off by "buy" orders under the "buy" plan. The "buy" plan, which was started by the U. S. Steel, amounted to 2,289,000 shares, against 2,960,000 in the same period Wednesday.

EVENING SALUTATION

Rightness expresses of actions what straightness does of lines; there can no more be two kinds of right action than there can be two kinds of straight lines.

—Herbert Spencer.

A SELF-APPOINTED DIPLOMAT

One might believe that Congressman Britten's recent action in proposing a disarmament conference between members of the House of Commons and Members of Congress, timed when the government is about to consider the Naval bill, was the outburst of a hot-headed and over-zealous believer in peace, were it not for the recollection of a hearing before the House Naval Affairs Committee last year.

Congressman Britten was acting chairman when several women's organizations appeared before that body urging the adopting of the $800,000,000 naval building program at which time he was very outspoken against any who opposed the measure. Among other questions, Congressman Britten asked one of the women whether she did not think it was a "menace to the country" to send out "such trash" as those opposing the measure were sending out. Further he urged the ladies of the D. A. R. to do all in their power to bring about the removal from his position as professor of international relations of Swarthmore College of Professor William I. Hull who had opposed any increase or replacement in the navy.

In that hearing Congressman Britten indicated that he believes in censorship and suppression of the things he believes should be suppressed. Now since censorship and suppression, when adopted by a democratic country, must work by some rules and principles neither Congressman Britten nor any other individual can be permitted to exercise the censorship alone. Would it not be a good plan to continue our policy of censorship and suppression where we have already begun it and take further steps, if any, according to the temper of the body politic? We would begin with Congressman Britten's own transgression for which there is already a more sensible rule than could be found for most any other kind of censorship: namely, the Logan bill, which is aimed at any citizen of the United States, who without permission or authority of the government, commences or carries on correspondence with any foreign government with intent to influence that government's conduct with the United States.

Since Congressman Britten is not a misguided but well-intentioned lover of peace he must be a lover of the limelight or just simply a rah! rah! boy wanting to do something.

The man who pushed a peanut 11 miles with his nose ought to make a good reporter. He has a great nose for news.

THE SIX CYLINDER MOTOR

The decision of one of our large motor manufacturing companies to get out of the four-cylinder class emphasizes the progress that is being made in the automotive industry. Fourteen hundred dollars invested in a motor car today gives a value equivalent to what $2500 would buy in 1920. This is the result of mass production and more efficient methods of manufacture.

We hear a great deal these days about the high cost of living, but as has often been said, we would better call it the cost of high living. Considering what we have today in the way of conveniences and comforts and luxuries, to which even kings and nobles of a former age were complete strangers, we can hardly complain of the high cost of living. We venture the assertion that if we lived on the same scale as we did in the '90's, the cost of living today would be much cheaper than at that time.

In 1896 the legislature of Massachusetts appointed a commission to inquire the causes for the increasing high cost of living. At that time eggs were selling for 16 cents a dozen, butter for 25 cents a pound, flour for eight dollars a barrel of 196 pounds, and beef steak at 25 cents a pound. We pay very much more for these articles of food today, but wages are proportionately higher, and luxuries are very much more general. In those days labor was content with $1.50 for a ten-hour day. Now wages are more than double. Prosperity has gone beyond the limits dreamed of in those days. It is well to bear these facts in mind when we are paying twice as much for commodities. But it should be borne in mind that many commodities are decreasing in cost, and that we are very much better off than when eggs were selling at 16 cents a dozen. As the years pass, unless we are foolish enough to have another war, we shall even be better off than we are today.

Russia will stage an international chess tournament next summer. Looks like they were calming down over there.

THE END OF PROPAGANDA IN OUR SCHOOLS

The educators of the country have put themselves on record against the propaganda methods which have crept into our schools. The revelations made before the Federal Trade Commission which has been investigating the workings of the Public Utilities of the country indicated how general this propaganda system was. It was so subtle that the educators themselves were scarcely conscious of it. Only when they saw all the cards placed upon the table, did they realize that they had become the unconscious tools of designing interests.

If any of our institutions should be kept free from sinister propaganda it must be our educational institutions. If ever these educational institutions become the tools of any agency designed to support the existing conditions, whether it be of religious and scientific knowledge or of industrial agencies, then progress becomes impossible. We shall continue to worship the things that are at the expense of things that ought to be. The resolutions of the National Educational Convention are timely, and we look for better things as a result of it all.

INSPIRED BY THE BUDGET

The Federal estimates for expenditures for the years 1929 and 1930 have just been published.

The interesting, important, and disheartening part of the budget is the total of expenditures for wars, past, present and possibly future. The total for these items for the year 1929 is $2,559,861,069, out of a total expenditure for all purposes of $4,328,028,326.09.

The figures for 1930 are, for wars, $2,895,865,049 out of a total of $4,417,369,904.

In each year more than one-half of all the expenditures of the Federal government will be for war and the care of the disabled and dependent due to war. The largest single item is for the care of war veterans and amounts to nearly $600,000,000. No one begrudges the amounts paid to the broken men who fought the wars, but every right-thinking person should object to the seeming necessity of paying nearly three billion dollars each year for enterprises, not only unproductive but enormously wasteful of life, health, happiness and money.

It is to be noticed also that the estimated expenditure for these purposes is greater for the year 1930 than for the year 1929, by $340,000,000.

The amount for war purposes is more than $500,000,000 greater than the estimated returns from the tax on incomes. In other words, if peace had been and was now not only our national policy, but practice as well, the tax on incomes never would have been necessary and this more than two billion dollars would have remained in the pockets of the people.

It is only when we think of the cost of war in terms of the money each of us pays for it, that we can begin to do some effective thinking.

It certainly is to be hoped that in this present generation we who boast so loudly of our civilization and humanity may find a way to relieve our budget of these enormous war expenditures and put about three billion dollars to work for the arts of peace and the comforts of the people.

The West "Shows Them"

Riverside Daily Press

Within three days last week football teams from the Pacific Coast scored impressive victories over three teams from the East that were rated as among the strongest in the country. Oregon State won over New York University, Stanford overhauled the Army, and U. S. C. defeated Notre Dame. And here is hoping that California defeats Georgia Tech on New Year's day; that would establish beyond question the superiority of Pacific Coast football teams.

As a matter of fact California has this year three university teams that rank with the very best in the Middle West or the East—University of Southern California, Stanford and California. And four teams in the Northwest—Oregon State, University of Oregon, University of Washington and Washington State—are not far behind the three great elevens of California. It may be added that St. Mary's and Occidental would also come pretty near playing Notre Dame, or any other team in that class, to a standstill.

The Pacific Coast is certainly "showing them" in football this year; and the interest in football on the coast is such and the conditions here are so favorable to success of the sport that the supremacy of the coast is likely to be continued.

The football results this year come just after the success of the University of California crew at the Olympic games and it is only a few months ago that Stanford track team won the national intercollegiate meet. University of Southern California had won the meet twice in recent years and California also has its quota of track stars.

Competition in basketball or baseball would most likely give added emphasis to the athletic leadership of the Pacific Coast—a leadership already demonstrated in three major sports.

If Harvard, Wisconsin, Chicago or any other eastern university wants to test the prowess of Pacific Coast basketball and baseball teams, they are cordially invited to "come on."

It may be said that this editorial is a characteristic bit of California boasting; but the record warrants it.

Editorials, Amateur and Otherwise

Christian Science Monitor

Just in so far as it needs a trained musician to interpret music or a lawyer to interpret the law, so does the editorial writer render his service in interpreting the news. This the Boston Traveler, in Massachusetts, found, after a brief but audacious experiment. In a bold attempt to gauge the public taste, it dropped editorials from its pages and substituted therefor the People's Forum, or letters from readers commenting on subjects that interested them. The plan, though popular and meritorious in a degree, was not a success. So it has been abandoned and the publication of editorials resumed.

Some interesting and valuable contributions come to a newspaper from its readers. Yet the readers can hardly be expected to engage in the research work, or to devote the time, necessary to the formulation of a competent opinion on important questions of the day. That is the function of the editorial writer. Him the reader regards as the balance wheel of a newspaper. His duty is to restrain the undue emphasis of the news, on the one hand, and to stress its importance, when necessary, on the other. To him the reader frequently looks for guidance when a problem is intricate and its phases obscure. His is a responsible task. Unlike the poet, the novelist, or the dramatist, the editorial writer performs his daily task unheralded, unsung. No one knows better than he how far he falls short of his aim. Yet he finds comfort in the recognition by the reader that he meets a great need. None the less does the reader contributor serve a useful end. In a union of both, perhaps, in the utilization of the talents of all worthy commentators, lies the secret of a happy and successful newspaper.

Sometimes It Pays Better to Be Loser

San Francisco Chronicle

The balance sheet of the Reichsbank shows that it now holds $10,000,000 in gold, as against the $105,000,000 held in 1924. Those who are amazed by this showing of German industry's recovery in spite of the heavy reparations payments exacted overlook the fact that Germany's military bill is at a minimum figure. Her late adversaries will not permit Germany to have an army or navy beyond what may be regarded as a domestic police power. And keeping Germany disarmed they are forced to protect that country against any aggression. Sometimes the loser wins.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

TO A MOSQUITO

Although you looked filmy and fragile
Last June, when the weather was hot,
You proved too elusive and agile
For me to destroy with a swat.
All over the porch you pursued me
Lightly dodging my slaps and my blows
And avidly, eagerly chewed me Whenever you chose.

No meal was sufficient to cloy you,
You must have drunk blood by the pail
And all my attempts to destroy you Were always devoid of avail.
At night, when my head was uncovered
You flew from your back garden den
And over my visage you hovered
And bit me again.

And now you are aged and blowsy,
A glaze has spread over your eye
The chill makes you stupid and drowsy
And you probably creak as you fly.
You are flabby and feeble of sinew
And flat is the carol you croon,
But the same greedy hunger is in you
That filled you last June.

Your glance is now soft and appealing,
Albeit a little aghast
As you gaze from your perch on the ceiling.
Aware that I've got you at last.
Being weak and supine at this season
You pray that you may not be slain,
And that is exactly the reason
That your prayer is in vain.

Dr. Frank Crane's Friendly Talk

By Dr. Frank Crane

CHILDISHNESS

Why did a certain wise man say: "When I became a man I put away childish things?"

Is not childhood altogether lovely? Are not children sweet and charming? Did not the Master say that unless we became like little children we should in no wise see the kingdom? There is perhaps one thing that pertains to childhood that it behooves the older people to put away. It is all right to see a baby coo and gurgle, but if a grown man acts that way we think he is feeble-minded. A child may play with paper dolls, but a woman, normally, has some other kind of amusement. And that grownups should not do, is to cry.

Crying is characteristic of the child. It is the first thing he does on coming into the world. It is his first form of exercise.

What is crying? When Johnny, aged six, bumps his nose he contorts his face, opens his mouth to emit unpleasant sounds, and accompanies all this with rain in the face.

What does he do this for? His mother doesn't understand. She comforts him as well as possible, caressing him, and saying that crying does not do any good.

But he is not crying because he expected it to do good; if anything he is crying because it does not do good.

His auntie does not understand. She rubs medicine on his nose and assures him that he is not hurt very badly and that crying will not cure him.

But he does not cry thinking that it will cure. It is not a benevolent noise. Neither does he cry in order to heal his wounds. It is not a medicinal noise.

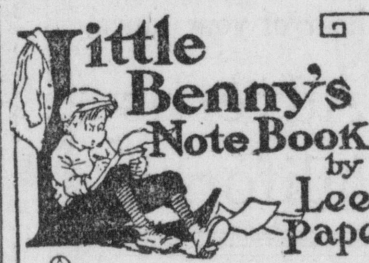

It is an advertising noise. It means that he wants everybody within the sound of his voice to know that he is in pain.

When Mr. John, aged forty-seven, bumps his nose he keeps still, except perhaps for a mild imprecation or two.

What is the difference between John and Johnny? It is simply that the former realizes that the public at large is not interested in his pains. And that is a good thing to know.

If you have any suffering, keep it to yourself. If you have any joy, share it. Do not complain. Do not talk of your ailments. Put away the childishness of crying, which in adults we call complaining.

Yesterday before supper it was rainy and muddy and dark, and pop came in the back way so he wouldn't dirty the hall carpet, saying, "Wat the dooce is that pile of junk just inside the back gate that I almost broke my shins over?"

Junk? I don't know of anything, ma sed, and I sed, G, pop, that must of been my pile of broke bricks. Some man was shoveling about a million of them into a wagon and he told us fellows we could have some after we asked him, and Puds Simkins went and got his ixpress wagon and we took a whole ixpress wagon full, only maybe I shoudent of unpumped them so near the gate, I sed.

Maybe not, pop sed. About the exact center of a vacant lot would of been better, if you ask me, he sed, and I sed, Well G, pop, maybe I can sell them some time, maybe I'll meet somebody wanting to buy them, and then all I'll haff to do is divide the money with the rest of the fellows.

Why don't you let the child keep his bricks, Willyum? ma sed. If we discourage his first faint stirrings of bizness ability it will just serve us rite if he turns out to be a starving writer of musician, she sed.

Well, that's an idee, pop sed. Perhaps some day he'll turn out to be a wealthy broken brick salesman. But why the dooce do they haff to repose in my backyard. If young Simkins had his ixpress wagon started why didnt he keep going to his own back yard, he sed.

Well G wizz, he did, pop, only he wasent allowed to take them in. I sed, and pop sed, O he wasent, and I sed, No sir, and all the other fellows tried their back yards and none of them wasent allowed, so I only brawt them here because I had to.

And by gollies that's the very identical reason why your going to cart them out agen, pop sed. If you think I look like an asylum for homeless rejected broken bricks, take another look. You may stay, young man, but those broken bricks must go, he sed.

Proving the danger of too many explanations.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By Glenn Frank

FROM MY NOTE-BOOK

A man is lucky if from any single book he may read he can salvage one sentence or one paragraph that enters permanently into his intellectual heritage.

For years I have been throwing into a drawer, on stray scraps of paper and the backs of discarded envelopes, fragments and flashes of insight I have come upon in my reading. Now and then I like to plunder this drawer for the stimulation I find in it.

Today I want to reproduce some of the things that caught my eyes as I fingered through this drawer last night.

"A practical man," says the bizarre and brilliant Disraeli, "is a man who practices the errors of his forefathers."

"The fact that a believer is happier than a sceptic," says Bernard Shaw, "is no more to the point than the fact that a drunken man is happier than a sober one. The happiness of credulity is a cheap and dangerous quality."

"There is little comfort in the assurance that science has been reconciled with religion," says L. P. Jacks, "unless the religion it has been reconciled with is a good religion."

"But because you cannot understand a thing," says the sublime Pascal, "it does not cease to exist."

"The life of Reason alone is free from Magic," says Plotinus.

"The children of the mind are like the children of the body," says R. H. Tawney. "Once born, they grow by a law of their own being, and, if their parents could foresee their future development, it would sometimes break their hearts."

"Common sense and a respect for realities," says Mr. Tawney elsewhere, "are not less graces of the spirit than moral zeal."

"Reasoning," says the great Dean Swift, "will never make a man correct an ill opinion which by reason he never acquired."

"Hope and fear are precious parts of life and precious aids to living," says Benedetto Croce, distinguished Italian philosopher. "But they lose their value, they become sources of weakness and embarrassment, when they are fixed as attitudes, habits, points of arrival. If anxiety lays hold on a man and comes to dominate his personality, he is paralyzed; he is reduced to impotence. Losing confidence in himself, he finally thinks of himself as finished, as dead. And hopefulness operates in the same way. It saps the acuteness of our vision; it saps the energy of our action, lulling us to repose in the fatuous confidence that things will turn out right anyway."

This last should be read alike by pessimists and by optimists.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

BARE LEGS

The cold weather is bearing down upon us. The sunlighted hours grow shorter and shorter and shorter and the winds blow harder and colder. And the children's stockings seem to grow shorter and shorter. I'm against bare legs in this climate in winter.

I know many of you will not agree with me but I see the children, their bare legs mottled with cold, their bodies tense as they tie them tighter and tighter to the bones in a vain effort to keep warm. I think that when undergarments end halfway between hip and knee, and stockings barely reach above the calf of the leg, the child is under-clothed, is dangerously exposed to chill.

It requires a great deal of energy to keep a body warm in the chill of a winter day. Children use a great deal of energy in work and play. They do not have the benefit of the long days in the open air. The amount of sunshine they enjoy is reduced to the lowest point. And we dress them as we did when the July sun was making the pavements as baking ovens. As far as legs go.

Then the little ones, scarce big enough to walk to school alone, slip on the ice and down they go. Their unprotected knees are skinned. Dirt gets into the open scratch and an infection comes along. We bandage infected knees; we treat head colds, we lecture about the use of handkerchiefs; we give talks about sneezes and snuffles; we warn children of the dangers of wet feet and sudden drafts of chilly air. And we send them out in the teeth of winter with uncovered legs.

To be sure most schools, most houses are heated. Heavy clothing is out of place in most cases but why the bare legs? It is possible to lengthen skirts a bit. It is possible to lengthen the undergarment and garter up a stocking to meet it. A child's leg dressed in a good stocking, well gartered, is quite as beautiful as one uncovered from calf to thigh, mottled blue with cold, knee scarred and scratched with bumps and falls. Clothing need not be heavy but it does need to BE.

Instead of putting on all the clothing in one place, about the middle of the child, why not spread it out a bit toward both ends? A sweater and a coat and a muffler and a muff and a cap with ear flaps—and then an exposed chest and bare legs. What's the idea?

You think it is not good to cover the child's bare legs in December weather? Then suppose you try it on yourself? I believe you will change your mind long before the end of the first day in the open.

DEPARTING GUEST: You must come and see me in my new villa. All who have seen it are speechless with admiration.
MR. HENPECK: Delighted! Er—may I bring my wife as well?—Passing Show.

HELPLESS BOB

BETTY: Bobby Smith kissed me.
MOTHER: Why, Betty, what did he do that for?
BETTY: Well—I'm not sure—but I think I have the stronger will.—American Legion Monthly.

MALICE AFORETHOUGHT

"When you left home this morning I'll bet you little thought that before the day was out you'd be perched here with a man you'd never seen before!"
"What do you take me for, boy? Do you think I came here to play solitaire?"—London Calling.

INCESSANTLY

GREEN: Can your wife play an instrument?
GABLEIGH (wearily): Yes, she plays a lot on the ear-drum.—Answers.

MIGHT AS WELL

"You don't seem to be worrying about your failure in business?"
"Oh, no; that's one of the things I've turned over to my creditors."—Answers.
